to select a charman for the program to be given by the scholars. The lot fell on our popular veteran trustee, J Hetherington, who expressed himself well pleased with the proceedings and the progress of the school during the year, especially the last half. Since they met last year the roll had lessened little though its area had been trimmed off for the new school section of an accident that might have proved fatal Duolop, and no death has occurred last week, by falling backwards from a during the year. Among those present was one of the trustees of the section in its pioneer days, and later on he would call on him. Mr Wm Green, of Casselton, Dakota, replying, said his heart was too full to answer the kind Miss Luc words said of him when, in former years as a resident of Colborne, he was a trustee of this section and could not express himself in return, for their kindness and the welcome to him. KINTAIL To the pupils of Kintail School

DEAR SCHOLARS.—On the occasion of my parting with you, I would like, through THE SIGNAL, to say a farewell word to you, as, under the circumstances. I could not give expression to anything of that kind when school closed. Let Friday my three years' work, or rather pleasure among you came to a finis Should I remain teaching, I do not expect ever to spend so long a term with less trouble and so much pleasure in con nection with my work. As the time speat among you has been, to me, pleasant, I do not forget that it has been largely made so by the never failing kind-ness shown to me by both you and yours. The little incident that occurred last Friday afternoon at the school does not prompt me to make such remarks. Before I spent one month among you I me to make such remarks. earned to know that I was surrounded and supported by a crowd of warm heart-ed little friends. As such I hope I have treated you, as has been my earnestlen-deavor, and as such I feel confident I have parted with each and all of you. As I am taking only a step from the dear old coool house No. 3 to No 12. I shall, if

F. J. T. NAFTEL, THE GREAT BANNER IS STILL WAY

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, destroy beauty and attractiveness and make life miserable. An unfailing specific for these maladies is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded.
