Prestrained.

Repeated calls for Dr. McIntyre brought the popular and candidate to the platform.

Upon appearing he was given an ovation. In a brief speech he expressed his plea sure at the victory, not alone in his own constituency, but for Libera principles and good government in all parts of Canada. The one regret was that the City of Strathcona, his home city, and gone against him by a small majority. He thanked the electors who had given him their support for what they had done, and promised a continuance of his best efforts for his constituency.

A few of the Conservatives received the returns over a private wire in en office on Whyte avenue. Needless to say, there was no great hilarity displayed over the results of the slander campaign.

Lord Northcliffe Advocates a Better News Service.

Toronto, October 26—Speaking at Canadian Club luncheon today, Lord Northcliffe regretted that notion has got abroad in England that no English have been a service and the salte of the sevent have been a service and a service and the salte of the sevent have been a service.

Lord Northcliffe regretted that Canadians were not on a whole well acquainted with English affairs and with the great work English statesmen are debration and capital towards this country.

The returns in the Edmonton constituency are necessarily incomplete, many of the outlying polls yet having to be heard from. The constituency are necessarily incomplete, many of the outlying polls yet having to be heard from. The constituency of money, they had indeed fought a good fight and would yet see their country.

the quiet though feverish excitement during the day. While there was work to be done at the polls, the retainers of both candidates worked like Trojans. When the polls closed in this city the excitement of an election night began. About five o'clock the C.P.R. and C.N.R. telegraph lines were receiving the results in the Maritime Provinces, and these were post-

Mr. Hyndman then drove home, MAJORITY IN THE CITY IS 661 but returned several hours later to hear the latest returns.

"Since the campaign opened I have of covered every available part of the constituency and when you consider that the constituency extends practically to the North Pole and to the British Cothe North Pole and to the British Co-lumbia boundary you will see that the task was a heavy one. We have cut down the majorities in Morinville and St. Al-bert and many other polls have been cut down so there is great cause for congra-tulation. Considers It a Victory. "I consider that we have won a great victory and at the next election we will machine has been too much.

"I believe that the people have voted against their own interests and have voted the country into the power of the great corporations who have fishing leases of all the great lakes of the north.
I cannot see how the electors could endorse the scandals of the government.
"It seems when Rev. John Pringle gets 2,000 miles away out of this district that his great defenders turn against him and his great defenders turn against him and vote against him. I refer particularly to one of his brother clergymen in this city and I don't care whether he knows that I say so or not.

"In four or five years more there will be another election. The Conservatives must get busy at once and organize properly and they will have a good chance of success. It is no use trying to calve our feelings, however, with this consolation. Let us cheer up and there is little doubt but we will come out on top at next election."

Mr. Hyndman then called for oheers (Continued on Page Two.)

The result in the thirty-three polls in the city gives Hon. Frank Oliver a net majority of 661. In all but four polls he led. These four polls gave the Conservative candidate a majority of 32. As compared with the result in the Oliver-Secord election in 1904, the minister of the interior increased his majority by 255, showing that of the new-comers to the city the Librarl candidate secured 255 more than fifty per cent. of these. The total vote polled in the city yesterday was 4,153. The total vote polled in 1904 was 1,342, when Hon. Frank Oliver had a majority over Richard Secord of 405.
