ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.

PARIS, Oct. 9.—(Official.) The general situation has not changed much. To our left both cavalrys were engaged north of Lille and La-bassee, and the battle is raging on a line fronted by Lens, Arras, Bray sur Somme, Chaulnes, Roye and Lassigny. At the centre of the Oise and vicinity of the Meuse nothing important is noted. To our right in Woivre there is an artillery duel on the entire front. In Lorraine and Vosges and in Alsace no change is reported. Bosnia.—The Montenegrin troops continue their advance in the direction of Sarajevo, and have nearly reached the fortifications which protect the town at a distance of eight kilometres.

Naval.—The French fleet after passing Antivari, visited the Islands of Adriatic between Cattaro and Lissa and arrived before Ragusa. The authorities at Ragusa fled at the sight of French warships. Petrograd.—Russians have captured ten thousand prisoners and forty cannon in recent battles on the frontier of Eastern Prussia.

SEVERE FIGHTING AROUND ANTWERP.

LONDON, Oct. 9. A despatch to the Chronicle from Rosendaal, Holland, dated Thursday evening, says severe fighting is progressing outside of Antwerp. It is said that shrapnel struck Erasmus Hospital in Fontaine Street, breaking many windows. In Turnhout and its vicinity many houses have been destroyed. It is reported here that the Germans have been compelled to retreat for a short distance.

BOTH SIDES LOSE HEAVILY.

LONDON, Oct. 9. The Times' Belgian correspondent in a despatch, dated Wednesday, says that the Germans are in strong form, is evident from their fierce offensive along the River Scheldt, which has resulted in their crossing of the River at three points. I reached a dense cloud of smoke arising from the Naptha works at Schoonard which were fired by Germans the previous night. The damage done by the bombardment in Schoonard was very great. To-day's fighting was bitter and deadly and both sides suffered heavily. The German losses especially must be important for they held a bridge over the Scheldt close to the entrenched Belgians.

COL. BURLAND DIES SUDDENLY.

LONDON, Oct. 9. Colonel Jeffrey Hale Burland, who arrived here a few days ago in charge of Red Cross work in connection with the Canadian troops, died suddenly to-day. He was born in Montreal in 1861.

AVIATORS' GOOD WORK.

LONDON, Oct. 9. The Admiralty announced to-night that naval airmen had made a successful attack on the German airship shed at Dusseldorf. A bomb dropped through the roof of the shed destroyed Zeppelins. The flames that resulted were observed by the airmen rising to a height of five hundred feet.

KING ALBERT WOUNDED.

LONDON, Oct. 9. A wireless received from Berlin says that it is reported that King Albert of Belgium, has been slightly wounded.

PRZEMYSL DOOMED.

ROME, Oct. 9. The Russian Ambassador, while denying the report that the garrison at Przemyśl, in Galicia, had surrendered to the Russians, added, however, that the whole town was on fire, and its capitulation was now inevitable.

LIVELY BATTLE AT ROZEL.

PARIS, Oct. 10. An official report says: There is no change on the battlefield, with the exception of the region of Rozel, where a lively battle has taken place. We have taken 1,500 prisoners near Rozel in the past three days.

NOT A GERMAN HAS YET ENTERED ANTWERP.

LONDON, Oct. 10. The Daily Telegraph's Rotterdam correspondent, telegraphing on Friday, says: A more hopeful view prevails here regarding Antwerp. Refugees from the city say not a German has yet entered Antwerp.

VIOLENT BOMBARDMENT.

LONDON, Oct. 10. "Thousands of refugees are arriving here, and steamers for England are packed," says Reuter's Ostend correspondent. "In the siege operations against Antwerp the Germans are using no less than 200 guns of 11.2 and 14-inch calibre, some of them having a range of over eight miles. The bombardment of Antwerp extended began at 9.30 at night and stopped only to be renewed with increasing violence at midnight. The British, French and Russian Ministers were the last of the diplomatic body to leave Antwerp. They departed by boat at 11 o'clock last night, after experiencing the first part of the bombardment."

WAR ONLY COMMENCING.

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 10. War against Britain, according to German newspapers received here, will commence at the end of October, after Antwerp has fallen. Belgium will then become a base of operations against Great Britain, the newspapers say. They add that Admiral Von Tirpitz, Minister of Navy, who is now at General Headquarters with Emperor William, has announced that he will go aboard the flagship of the German fleet and direct operations of the Navy.

Spending and Saving.

Jim Simpson's drawn a princely wage for seven years or more; he's selling sausages and sage at Dinky's doo-dad store. As a salesman he is Number One, he has a fetching style, so Dinky pays him lots of money, and he should have his pile. On Saturday he draws his wad, so big it springs his knees; alas, he scatters it abroad, as though it grew on trees. By Tuesday noon he's always broke, his gorgeous roll he's blown; and so he hunts up Sammy Smoke, and works him for a loan. This Sammy Smoke, a springald meek, is junior in the store; he pulls down thirteen plunks a week, and never handled more. He keeps close tab on every buck, each week he salts down five, and while the others cuss their luck he always seems to thrive. When Jim at last is out and down, as spenders always are, Sam Smoke will junket through the town in his own touring car. It isn't what a fellow earns that makes him poor or rich; it's what he gay high roller burns that dumps him in the ditch. Old age must come to all, you bet, unless we die too soon, and then what odds of regret fills life's late afternoon. If we in poverty are sunk, our last resources spent; how we bewail the vanished plunk that easy came and went!

"The British Were Superb."

Interesting Extracts From a Belgian Lady's Letter.

The following interesting insights on the war are contained in a letter written by a Belgian lady in Antwerp to a friend in England on September 5th. The writer is a niece of General Dufour.

"All my cousins are at the front. One of them has had a terrible experience. He fell wounded at Liege. Left on the field, the Germans hit him over the head with their rifle butts to finish him off. He was subsequently picked up for dead by the Belgian ambulance searchers, but the doctors found signs of life and eventually restored him. After three weeks of hospital he was sent back to his family, to their great joy, but the poor fellow has not yet recovered his memory.

"These German brutes outraged little girls, cut the breasts off women, and mutilated men. All their victims have died. They burn and destroy everything. At Brussels they stole all the pictures of any value in the museum. They use dum-dum bullets.

"Although our poor little Belgium has been laid waste, and the Germans continue their work of destruction, we all keep a stout heart.

"The British were simply superb before Liege, where they held a greatly superior German force in check for four days.

"At Liege half the Belgian combatants were killed. They fought like heroes, and may well be said to have saved France."

Hon. E. R. Bowring

DONATES $11,000 TO PURCHASE QUIDI VIDI PARK.

Some seven years ago that strip of land extending along the north side of Quidi Vidi Lake, was purchased privately by Sir Edward Morris, in the interests of the public, with a view to having the place converted into a park and recreation ground. The purchase of the land was effected by loan of $11,000 from the Bank of Montreal, the interest on which being paid annually by the following gentlemen: Hon. Sir William Horwood, C.J., Hon. E. R. Bowring, Hon. W. C. Job, Hon. S. Milley, Hon. Jno. Harris, Hon. John Harvey, Hon. M. G. Winter, Hon. R. K. Bishop, and Messrs. W. B. Grieve, J. Henderson and the late Hon. J. S. Pitts, C. Macpherson, and the late D. M. Browning, K.C. The purchase was intended to prevent the land from being built upon, and the above named gentlemen who were interested in the movement, undertook to pay the interest, annually as before mentioned, until some benefactor would interest himself in the matter.

HON. MR. BOWRING'S GIFT.

A cheque for the munificent sum of eleven thousand dollars was received yesterday from Hon. E. R. Bowring, who has established a reputation as a public benefactor. Bowring Park is a notable example of the generosity of himself and fellow directors of the firm of Bowring's. It is the monument of the firm's munificence in the West End. Similarly, the people of the West End can confidently look forward to seeing the historic Quidi Vidi Lake and its scenic surroundings beautified. The road on the north side of the Lake will receive special attention, boat-houses will be removed to other convenient places and the whole when finished will be a credit to the city and to the Hon. E. R. Bowring.

Large Funeral.

All that was mortal of the late James M. Jackson, was laid to rest yesterday afternoon. The funeral was very largely attended among the mourners being a large number of employees of Bowring Bros. stores with whom the deceased had been associated. As the cortege passed down Water Street flags were half-masted at Bowring Bros. premises out of respect for the deceased. At the Cathedral Rev. Fr. Conway officiated and interment was at Belvidere.

Mission Ship Leaves.

The Mission ship Harmony leaves at 11 a.m. on route to London where the winter will be spent. From here the ship will proceed north and visit the Moravian Mission stations at Repulse Harbour.

Rally Day Service.

The George Street Adult Bible Class is holding its annual Rally Day service to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the Class Rooms, George Street Church. Rev. D. B. Hemeon is delivering an address on "The Bible as a text Book." Sole by Miss Russell. Visitors will receive a cordial welcome.

THE COMET.—The comet was visible here last night about 7.30 in the N. N. W. just under the handle of the plough. A spectator said the tail appeared to him to cover 100 yards of the heavens.
