EARYL MESSAGES

REVIEW OF EVENTS.

constitute with fresh elements their units shattered by the Allies during tending through Bohemia, according units shattered by the Allies during the recent big offensive, they are keeping up intensive bombardments against the British and French positions on various sectors in Flanders and Picardy, they have also become embroiled with the French in heavy ists Tariff Reform Association toartillery duels in Champagne and in day, J. Austin Chamberlain, member the Vosges mountains. Nowhere on of the War Cabinet, said it was a any part of the line from the North question whether in view of the new Sea to the Swiss frontier has there circumstances the Unionists should been an infantry engagement of great adhere to their former attitude in re importance. Near Morlancourt, which gard to Ireland. Home Rule was not lies to the south of Albert, the Ger- a question for Ireland alone, he asmans delivered an attack against the serted, but concerned England, Scot-British, on a front of nearly a mile, land and Wales as well. Chamberand at one point penetrated a British lain said a solution of the whole position. The Australians in a coun- problem was urgently demanded, and ter attack almost immediately recap- asked that the facts be looked in the tured the ground, and the enemy suf- face. He pointed out that there was fered heavy losses and was repulsed. a Home Rule Bill on the Statute Book On the other parts of the front a sim- and there were pledges to Ireland, ilar operation was attempted against and that whatever plan the Govern- on both sides of the Atlantic, who are the French on Hill 44, the scene of ment might bring forward, it was enmany previous bloody encounters. In titled to every consideration. Firm for dealing with submarines, as well the altar Miss Neilie Cunningham, a the Kemmel sector unofficial accounts dealing with Ireland, he added, was as mines and bombs. The Germans popular young lady of the settlesays the enemy gained a foothold on essential if a constitutional 'Govern- can have a battle whenever they want the rugged slopes, but that the French ment was to be declared there, and it, the strength of the grand fleet has a gown of cream voile, and was abwere pressing them hard, while Field he declared Ireland should contribute been well maintained. Some of the tended by Miss Mary McDonald, who Marshal Haig in his latest communi- her share to the man-power necessary finest battleships of the United States looked charming in a suit of blue. cation asserts that an attack north of to save the Empire. Referring to the Navy are now associated with it. They Robecq in Flanders, the British took necessity of strengthening the British are not only splendid fighting ships, rick Myler. All join in wishing Mr. the initiative into their own hands, armies, Chamberlain said the Govern- but they are well officered and man- and Mrs. Mallard many years of wedand in an attack inflicted casualties ment is not indifferent to peace, but ned. The conditions under which ded happiness.—Com. on the enemy and captured prisoners. it is idle to talk peace until the great the Germans would engage us there-On the Amiens sector the French carried out a similar manoeuvre with and the issue decided on the battle- two years ago. like results. Wherever the Germans field. essayed a stroke, except near Morlancourt, and Hill 44, thy met with almost instant repulse at the hands of the Allies. Although the Germans parative quiet, except for their ar- raid on Ostend, did not contain cetillery work, it is realized behind the ment, a German wireless received fully prepared in every way to give separation of the British and French to the Channel ports. The British weekly casualty report issued Tuesday, gives further proof of the sanguinary character of the fighting going on since March 21. The latest list aggregates 41,612, of which number 501 officers and 5,065 men were killed or died of wounds. The report last week showed 40,004 casualties, and that of the previous week 38,691, or a total for the three weeks

When the blow is to be delivered apparently is beyond the realm of even of 120,307 men killed, wounded or The first effort to force former Rus- ion for equal suffrage in the Prussian missing. sian subjects to take up arms against Franchise Reform Bill. the Entente Allies, has been made by the German Emperor in a proclamation, announcing the independence of Lithuania. The Emperor says he assumes that the conventions to be conliberation." There has been considcow between Bolshevik troops and hostilities were still in progress.

GERMANS REPULSED.

place. Field Marshal Haig reports to-night that at all the points on this line the Germans were repulsed w h heavy losses, and that the Australians later recaptured the lost position.

LITHUANIA.

AMSTERDAM, May 14. Emperor William has issued a proclamation concerning Lithuania, in which he says, it is assumed Lithuania will participate in the war burdens of Germany.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.

PARIS, May 14. (Official.)—French patrols carried I.rried out operations north of Hangard (on the front before Amiens) tear Courcey and west of the Meuse, bringing back prisoners. We easily repulsed a German raid on small French posts northwest of Orvillers Serre. The artillery fighting was rather spirited in the Champagne near Butte du Mensil and in the Vosges. A German attack north of La Freht was repulsed by our fire. There is nothing to report further.

UNREST IN BOHEMIA.

LONDON, May 14. A state of siege has been declared at Smichow, a suburb of Prague, Bohemia, and the troops have been sent away, an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam reports. One hundred and fifty women are said to

While the Germans continue to re- demonstrations. The burgomaster. to the despatch.

IDLE TO TALK PEACE.

LONDON, May 14.

CORPECTING GERMAN LIE.

LONDON, May 14. for a resumption of hostilities. The despatch further asserts.

strengthening of the line is being In response to the foregoing, the made both in man and gun power, British Admiralty to-day declared and in reconstituting regiments that that the British Admiralty statemen were shot to pieces by the Allied of May 10th, stating the Vindictive guns during the big drive. The Ger- was filled with concrete, was absomans are bringing up men who have lutely correct, and that the German had no part in the great struggle. message was entirely false.

LORD FRENCH IN CONTROL.

surmise, but it is highly probable that it will not come until the enemy is Field Marshal Lord French is now in supreme command in Ireland, the mighty battle to gain his object, the Dublin correspondent of the Daily News telegraphs, exercising in pracarmies, and the opening of a fair way tice those powers which have always have full authority on questions relating to the national defence and international administration, and will put the country for the first time on what may be described as a war footwhat may be described as a war footing.

REFORM BILL REJECTED.

AMSTERDAM, May 14. The Prussian Lower House has rejected a motion to restore the provis-

THE DEBT TO THE NAVY. LONDON, May 14.

(Via Reuter's, Ltd.)-Archibald Hurde, the naval expert, writing in tary for Ireland, Edward Shortt, cluded "will take the interests of the the Daily Telegraph on the new situa- thanking his constituents to-day for torial a letter signed by Mr. Harold German Empire to account equally tion in the North Sea resulting from his unopposed re-election to his seat Mitchell, President of the R. V. and with those of Lithuania, and that Lith- the Zeebrugge and Ostend raid, the in the House of Commons for New- R. M. Association, thereby adding inuania will participate in the war bur- extension of British mine fields and castle, said that he would have been sult to injury. Caught red-handed in dens of Germany which secured her the generally increasing naval pres- content to offer himself for re- his treachery he tries to bolster up sure against Germany, says, when election with the single programme his deceit by making his personal orerable fighting in the streets of Mos- the war is over the nation will form of devoting every energy to winning gan appear as the "official" journal anarchists, and at last accounts the the American navy in the manner in and lasting peace, but to attain that Not one word of comment was made which it has co-operated not only in end, he said, no step was more urgent by the Herald editorially on the connection with the convoy system than that of bringing peace and unity whole disgraceful affair and it looks, but in fighting the submarines. If the to Ireland, so that the sister Isle to the man on the street at least, LONDON, May 14. naval situation is improving to-day, might join with her full strength in that the Herald, Coaker and Mr.

Photographic

SEED 26. SEED 27.

We have just received a new shipment of Seed

DRY PLATES

of all the different sizes at the regular prices.

Tooton's, The Kodak Store.

Headquarters for Everything pertaining to Photography.

They Come!

They come, the young and brave, they In answer to their brothers' calling, see them on the distant road As dusk upon the hills is falling.

hear the throbbing of the drum The tread of marching men and clearly Upon the evening breeze a song cheerily.

The land is answering, the land That knows, as knoweth every In addressing the Women's Union-The sons she nursed; she gives them

> For Empire and for one another he same old banner of the free Flings from its folds its spirit o'er and well we know that ye'll maintain Conscripts or Volunteers, I trow The battle fields of France Flanders. That knows the fiercest, noblest day, Shall know that ye were Newfound-

an immense body of skilled workers

NEWSPAPER MAN DEAD.

BEAULIEU, France, May 14. James Gordon Bennett, proprietor The British cruiser Vindictive, sunk of the New York Herald, died at 5.30 everywhere are remaining in com- to block the harbor during the recent o'clock this morning, after having been unconscious for two days. Mr. Bennett's last words before relapsing Allied lines that this state of affairs here claims. The cruiser was sunk by into unconsciousness were in relation will not last long, for the enemy is the fire of the German batteries and to his newspaper interests. Mrs. Benknown to be preparing methodically was not blown up by the British, the nett was with her husband when he

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

LONDON, May 14. 41,612. They are divided as follows. 501; men, 5,065; wounded or missing, Killed or died of wounds, officers, of British casualties are not available in the matter. for some time after the actions in represents loss suffered when the fighting in Flanders and Picardy was been possessed by a Viceroy. He will at its height. Complete returns have that the casualties reported in the TRAIN WRECK.

NEW YORK, May 14. Two passengers and two trainmen ber 22, known as the Buffalo Special, near Albany late last night.

THANKS CONSTITUENTS.

LONDON, May 14. The newly appointed Chief Secresome conception of the debt we owe the war and obtaining an honorable of this Association. In an attack along a mile front as it is, it is due to the fact that the the fight for civilization. The vote Mtichell understand each other. For near Morlancourt, the Commans pene- British and American fleets are worktrated the British positions at one ing in closest accord, supported by

To the V. A. D's.

Every mother's heart For only noble impulse Would make them cross the seas. Equally with their brothers To fight in a righteous cause, Giving all their skill and strength, Nor seeking the world's applause.

Every mother's thanks Goes out to the V. A. D's Who give up home and pleasure To face suffering and disease; soothe the pain of wounded men, To cheer their weary hours, Giving hope of strength renewed, Nerve to fight sufferings powers.

Every mother's prayer
Will go with you V. A. D's For safety on your journey
To lands across the seas.
May you have strength and wisdom In time of distress and need To work and speak for comfort
In the hour of soul's great need.

Newfoundland is proud Of each of her V. A. D's, They chose the path of duty Instead of selfish ease. Such duty brings its reward In knowing your skilful hand lightened the burden of war For the honour of Newfoundland. ONE BOY'S MOTHER.

CHEAP OYSTER STEWS. To clear our stock of Oysters, we are serving Oyster Stews at 25c. WOOD'S West End Resaurant.—apr27,tf

Wedding Bells

BISHOP-SMITH.

At the Parsonage of the Jubilee Methodist Church, on Monday evening, Miss Sadie Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Smith, became the bride of Heber Bishop, of St. John's, Newfoundland, the Rev. J. W. Bartlett officiating at the ceremony. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue tailored costume and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ida Smith. Charles Smith, a brother of the bride, acted as groomsman. Mr. Bishop is a returned soldier, having done his bit in France where he saw service with one of the first Newfoundland Regiments. The couple received many beautiful gifts, and telegrams of The fame of those who went before congratulations were also received from friends and relatives in St. John's. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop will reside in Brampton, Ont.-Sydney Record, May 9.

MALLARD-CUNNINGHAM.

A very pretty wedding was solmnized at St. Joseph's Parish, Monday, May 6th, by the Rev. Dr. Kitment. The bride was neatly attired in The groom was attended by Mr. Pat-

"And All the People Shall Say, Amen."

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir,-I am quite in accord with the lished in yesterday's News, and editorially dealt with in last evening's Star, re the action of the Returned Soldiers and Rejected Men's Association towards the Honourable (?) W F. Coaker and his infamous secret

It is apparent to me, sir, and think I can positively state, the gen The total of British casualties re- eral public as well, feel that a strong ported in the week ending to-day is political complexion is being given this Association. Whether it is done with or without their consent I know not; but if they are misjudged they officers, 2,123; men, 33923. Reports will have only themselves to blame

The matter is too serious a one to which they were sustained. The be politically winked out of sight. large total in the last week evidently The manner in which this circular was used, and the language in which doubt as to what this man Coaker intended to convey to his following in the Northern Districts. His use of Executive secrets, and his dastardly attempt to recoup his own exchequer to the disadvantage of the Dominion's, should, and I feel will, merit the strongest contempt of all fair minded and intelligent citizens.

From his seat in the House, Mr. Coaker on Saturday last attempted to were killed and 15 passengers were defend his contemptible conduct. injured when passenger train num- Judging from his speech, which was featured in the Herald on Monday, was derailed at Schedack Landing, his effort must have struck his hearers as a very lame, ill-advised and unbecoming attempt to cover his tracks by resorting to cheap partisan 'camouflage"

His personal organ, the Evening Advocate, on Monday used as an edi-jected Men, I sincerely trust my deductions are incorrect.

Mr. Coaker, I understand, made a sneak away early Sunday morning in his palatial motor yacht, no doubt laughing up his sleeve at those whose sacrifices and trials he has used as a smoke screen to hide for the moment his unpardonable conduct.

If those in authority have brought pressure to bear on the Returned Soldiers and Rejected Men's Association for the base motives of political expediency, then I fear the time is not far distant when an outraged public will turn out en masse and see that those men who have borne the hurden of the hour will be given a free hand to carry on their work, a work which those in authority were either too incompetent or too careless as the News correspondent says, "If out avail, as the bike was a hopeless as the News correspondent says, "If out avail, as the bike was a nopeless one offender is punished whr should wreck. The "knight of the yard-shortest notice and without preparative," shouldered a part of the bicycle another go scot free."

The public watch with no little anxiety the attitude of His Excellency the Governor towards Mr. Coaker. If our people are to be made respect the that No. 2 bike broke down and they that without which the most perfect authority must see that those laws are carried out regardless of the peronnel of the offenders. With thanks for space, Yours truly, WHO'S WHO.

Here's an Announcement of the Greatest Importance for Men!

COLLARS:

We have in stock a full range of ARROW COLLARS in straight and pointed fronts. Here are some of the styles: BELMONT, TREMONT, LINDSAY, CONTOUR. FALCON, ALDORF. Sizes, 14 to 15 1-2.

25c. each.

NECKWEAR:

We have just opened a NEW LOT of MEN'S TIES. specially made up for our own trade. The Silks and Satins from which they are made, the perfect blending of the colours, and the manner in which each cravat have been finished would be commendable in Neckwear at much higher cost.

Our Price: 85 cents.

GLOVES:

We offer unusual values in an important presentation of Men's Gloves, Brown Silk, with Black Striped Backs. Sizes, 7 to 9, at $1.20 per pair.

Call and Inspect Our Stock.

S. MILLEY.

Our Spring Sale of FURNITURE!

We start to-day our Spring Sale with a big selection of BUREAUS and STANDS, prepared especially for us by factory in building. Over two hundred to select from.

Our SPECIAL BUREAU has 3 drawers well made of seasoned hardwood, mirror 13 x 22. Stock could not be imported and sold to-day less than $15.50. Our Special Price $10.50. Washstand has drawer and one door. Regular price $6.50. Our Price $5.50.

WING CHAIRS, PARLOR SUITES, LOUNGES, and in fact anything in the furnishing of a lowest possible prices consistent with good quality. To those contemplating the furnishing of a lowest possible prices consistent with good quality. home, or even one room, we would ask that you give us a chance to figure for you what it will cost. Always at your service. Command us.

Corner Springdale and Water Streets.

A "Tuff" Time.

On Monday evening, after they had finished their day's work, two mechanics and a "knight of the yardstick" took a spin on their wheels in the direction of Topsail. On their re- us will envy King George the ex-tried to do his bit by loading up the remaining portion of the machine in ened but confident and unsbaken. had to "beat it" on foot to the city, arriving at an early hour the followicipants will not soon forget.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES GAR Germany's last bid for crushing vic-

The King in the Firing Line.

London Daily Telegraph: Most of turn to town, when but a short dis- perience—as thrilling, perhaps, as tance from Topsail Hill, the front ould fall to any man's lot-of visiting "What is sauce for the goose the mechanics collapsed. His two should be sauce for the garder," and, pals came to his assistance but withstick" shouldered a part of the bicycle tion or ceremony of any kind, His in a glass of water. and brought it to town, and the other Majesty saw Britain in arms at the addition to his pal. The result was With such a spirit, moreover, there is helpless to avert disaster; sound and ing morning. Undoubtedly it was a far-seeing organization in every par-"tuff" time and one which the parnow being put forth in answer to.

Household Notes.

One pint of lard weighs one pound. Always heat the sugar for fruit

Eggs when scrambled should stirred constantly Don't forget that food habits & Even the fat of corned beef can b Fresh mint can be grown at hom

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY. THERAPION NO. THERAPION

charged With struck him asked Doo men came Manslaughter.

EX. VS. WILLIAM DOOLEY.

of the King vs. William charged with manslaughter, before His Lordship Justhe Supreme Court this and the following Jury:-Murphy, Robert Freeman, Am-Shaw, W. H. Hynes, J. J. Quiggald Munn, E. M. LeMessurier, Wallace, Michael Power, Robt. Thomas Walsh. The case cted much attention at the t the happening, owing to the at the deceased, Robert Penny, ischarged and disabled soldier sed. William Dooley, beof the crew of the ill-fated who figured prominently with Martin in an attempt to carry rescue work at the time of the Jury had been sworn, Mr. Hunt, Crown Prosecutor, adhem, and briefly outlined the after which the first witness, eatrice Codner, was called. declining to speak clearly the court much inconvenience. be seen by the evidence wittho was employed as a domestic eping company with Penney, for a year and usually met him on ghts out. On the night of the y they had attended the Nickel and were on their way home the trouble occurred.

Codner.-Sworn and exd by Mr. C. E. Hunt, gave evi- on accoun ollows: I live on Pleasant ney had h I was acquainted with Robert he had it and I knew him for about one a lot of p was keeping company with remember Tuesday, the 19th a heavy ch. I met him that night at walking h 's Square and went to the Nickel. re alone. We attended part of est show and part of the last. tures were not good so we left atre. After leaving the theatre went back to Pleasant Street. blew smoke across my face, said, "Go along you mutt." A was passing and stopped. He "What are you saying?" I said on the s. saying nothing to you. He said Penney said, there is nobody ng to you. He said to Penney, are not a man anyhow. Penney te no reply then. Dooley struck

Dooley, ' nev was hand off know Doo happened

Mr. King

on a bank time they Mr. King with Penn Penney T

Grath's ga Penney get ney after said "You" to Penney. time right me to cou bay; have years. I and Sunda I am not a

a long spe arettes. underneat of the roa walks bei asked me knocked

mark on

could see

them ther

the face somewhere. He

All Returned Soldie land, both in Saint John' fill in the form below and B. Harris, Secretary, The sociation, St. John's.

It will be to every interest of the Association GINNING, that every n his name. So fill in your AT ONCE.

The Soldiers'

RETURN Name Address

Occupation: If at present employ If unemployed ...

Occupation previous to e Date of enlistment ...

Date of discharge

REJECTE Name

Address Occupation

No. of Rejection Badge