MONDAY EVENING, JULY 21, 1873. Town and County News.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—A light cast-iron railing, of an ornamental character, is being erected around St. George's Church, to cost about $600. It is manufactured at Crowe's Iron Works.

A LIVE FOX.—A man from Puslinch was exhibiting a young fox in our streets to-day, one of six which he had captured in a hollow log some two weeks since. The mother made good her escape.

DR. GUTHRIE.—We have received from Mr. Day a handsome bound copy of the life of this noble hearted Christian—(we mean Dr. Guthrie, not Mr. Day.) Few religious readers are unacquainted with the works of Dr. Guthrie, whilst as a minister and philanthropist he was one of the most prominent men of the century; and a corresponding interest will be taken in the events of his long and useful life.

CALL OF A MINISTER.—The Rev. Mr. McFaul, of Charleston, presided as moderator at a meeting of the Congregation of the Canada Presbyterian Church at Orangeville, on Wednesday evening last, for the purpose of a call to a minister of the C. P. Church to be settled over the congregation, which has been some time without a settled pastor.

BY TELEGRAPH.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES. The New Spanish Ministry. Explosion of a Bomb at the Door of the Assembly. Defeat of the Carlists. Cholera at Vienna. The Cholera in the States. Corner in Erie Stocks.

Madrid, July 19.—The following is the official list, in which there are some changes from the one telegraphed yesterday:—N. Salmeron, President; Fernando Gonzalez, Minister of Finance; Senor Solar, Minister of State; Senor Rodriguez, Minister of Justice; General Gonzalez, Minister of War; Senor Maionave, Minister of the Interior; Senor Ovelido, Minister of Marine; Senor Polanco, Minister of Colonies; Senor Gonzalez, Minister of Public Works.

In the Cortes the vote for the President of the Council of Ministers stood 119 for Salmeron, and 93 for P. Y. Margall. During the debate on the Ministry great excitement and alarm was occasioned in the Cortes by the explosion of an Orsini bomb at the door. Who perpetrated the outrage, or what was the object, is not known.

London, July 19.—A special edition of the Daily News, issued this afternoon, announces that a large Carlist force has been defeated by the Government troops at Iquilloa, in the Province of Barcelona, after a battle of eighteen hours duration, during which the town was frequently taken and lost by the opposing forces.

The number of dead and wounded left upon the field was so large that vehicles of every kind in the town were pressed into the service for their removal.

Private advices received from Vienna, and dated the 17th inst., says that up to that time sixty-one cases of cholera had been reported, forty-two of which had proved fatal. In a single hotel forty-two persons had been attacked with symptoms of cholera, and six had died. The hotel was immediately closed.

Bayonne, July 19.—Don Carlos, with 10,000 men, is marching on the city of Bilbao. A despatch from Perpignan of July 20th, announces the capture of Iquilloa, by the Carlists, with 150 prisoners.

Madrid, July 20.—The Carlists have been repulsed before the town of Estella. The debate was opened in the Cortes last night on the constitution, which consists of 101 clauses. The provinces of Andalusia, Murcia, Valencia, and Catalonia have proclaimed themselves as independent cantons in anticipation of the new federal constitution.

Declarations of independence were issued at Seville, Cadiz and Barcelona. To-day President Salmeron made a statement of his policy, which he said would be in favour of a Federal Republic, and in no way reactionary. He regretted the revolutionary declaration of the Cantons, and declared it would be the Government's duty to suppress the demagogues as well as the Carlists.

Senor Castelar will probably be elected President of the Cortes, although Gil Deix is put forward as the candidate of the new Government. It is reported that the Radicals will support the Republican policy of order. The troops of the garrison serenaded General Gonzalez last night. The civil guard is to be increased to 40,000 men.

General Lagunero has resigned the command of the Republican forces in the Province of Biscay. It is reported that Don Carlos has ordered his forces not to interfere with the communication on the line of the Northern railway. A republican volunteer has shot himself up in a powder magazine at Estella, and threatens to blow it up rather than surrender to the Carlists.

A telegram from Barcelona announces that the workmen who left the factories have returned to their employment.

London, July 20.—The masters have formally agreed to the demands of the journeymen masons, and the expected strike has been avoided.

London, July 19.—Rev. Samuel Wilberforce, D.D., Bishop of Winchester, fell from his horse yesterday and was killed. He was riding with Earl Granville from Leatherhead to Lord Gower's county seat, where Mr. Gladstone waited him. His horse was going at full speed at the time the Bishop fell. His neck was broken and death was instantaneous.

Havana, July 20.—The Chinese laborers on estates are getting dissatisfied with being paid in paper currency. Disturbances are likely to occur.

Evansville, Ind., July 20.—A despatch from Mt. Vernon states that there is little if any change in the cholera reported, and six deaths occurred there to-day, and three near the suburbs. More than half the population have left the town, many hundreds of them coming to this city, and others are preparing to leave unless a favorable change occurs immediately.

No pretence of business has been made here for several days, and the city is deserted and has a gloomy appearance. Physicians have arrived from several surrounding towns, and are rendering all assistance in their power. Among the deaths to-day was Dr. Matzdorf, a young German physician, who since the appearance of the epidemic has been most active in his efforts in behalf of the sick and dying. One man, with his two daughters, died last night. Six cholera deaths occurred in Evansville. Two more cases were reported to-day, but no deaths.

Columbus, O., July 20.—Three convicts died from cholera in the penitentiary since last reports. The first death in the city from cholera occurred to-day.

Washington, midnight, July 20.—Probabilities for middle and eastern States generally clear, dry weather, falling temperature, and light winds from the southwest.

New York, July 19.—Ernst bank has been cornered by three German banking companies. The price advanced rapidly to 64, with one per cent. per day paid for its use. Daniel Drew is said to be the sufferer.

New York, July 21.—Arrived, City of Bristol, from Liverpool.

The Inquest on Coxe. ANOTHER VICTIM OF WHISKEY. The investigation into the death of Coxe, called for Saturday morning, was adjourned until six o'clock in the evening in consequence of the unlawful removal of the body of deceased, Stephen Coxe, beyond the limits of the County of Wellington.

At that hour the inquest was opened at McLaughlin's tavern, before Dr. Keating, coroner, and the following evidence was taken:—

Barnabas Gibson, who lives on the York road, in the township of Guelph, said that on Friday evening between 5 and 6 p. m. he saw deceased and another man driving on the road between witness' gate and Mr. Smart's. Witness was upon a hill about fifty rods away; they were talking loudly; saw deceased give the other man a shove; the latter got out, taking a bag with him, and went towards King's tavern; went indoors for about ten minutes, and afterwards saw deceased turn round and trot towards Guelph; about an hour and a half afterwards saw the son of deceased driving his father's team back, and the dead body in the wagon. Would no doubt have seen it if the deceased's companion had struck him; did not observe any scuffle. Deceased backed his horses in a way which showed that he was quite in his senses.

Margaret Cochrane said that about five o'clock she was in Mrs. Darby's, and her little boy ran in the saying that a man was at the gate with his nose bleeding. Witness paid no attention to it, until the boy came in again in half an hour, when she went out and found the deceased's wagon standing in the road. She went to it, and found deceased's face and hand cold; no pulse could be felt; he was getting on his knees with his face pushed against the front of the wagon; his mouth was free for breathing; there was no traces of blood anywhere; close to the wagon was something which had been vomited; her little boy, five years old, had told her that when he first saw deceased his head was leaning on his shoulders, he had hold of the reins, and the horses were walking, the boy called "whoa" and the horses stopped at Darby's gate; the contents of the wagon were all in their places.

David King, keeper of the Rifle Range Tavern, said that about eleven o'clock on Saturday morning deceased and a man named Bennett called at his house, had either one or two glasses of liquor, and proceeded towards Guelph. Thomas Coxe afterwards came along, asked if the old man had passed, and then remarked that no doubt he and the man with him would get on the spree before they got home. About six o'clock in the evening deceased and Bennett again stopped at the tavern, remained 30 or 40 minutes, and had two glasses of liquor each. Both had evidently been drinking a good deal. In ten or fifteen minutes after they left Bennett returned alone, saying that deceased had struck him two or three times on the head, that he would not stand it, and had got out. In and out of the minutes deceased passed the tavern in the direction of Guelph, at a trot, apparently all right. Bennett stayed half an hour, and then went away towards Rockwood. He and deceased had no quarrel in witness' place. Bennett had no marks of a scuffle about him. Others were in the bar at the same time as deceased, but he was not
