Mr. Donald McArthur, who lived near the jog on the second line road, con. 12, of East Nissouri, left his house to drive the cattle down to the creek at McClure's bridge to water on Thursday and was found a short time after lying on his face on the middle of the road quite dead. A doctor was sent for and pronounced heart disease to have been the cause.

A 6-year-old son of Henry Fitzpatrick, con. 10, Sandwich East, in company with his elder sister was playing in the barn, when the elder one went up into the mow to throw down some hay. The fork slipped, and going down tine first, struck the little one on the head, one of the tines penetrating the brain to a depth of three inches. He died in a few minutes.

A very pleasant event took place at the residence of Mr. R. L. Watt, of Huron township, being the marriage of his daughter, Miss Gertrude, to Mr. George Meldrum, of Morriston, Wellington county, the Rev. Mr. Ballantyne officiating. Dr. and Mrs. Meldrum, of Wingham; Miss Meldrum, of Morriston; and Mr. John Watts, of Walkerton, were among those present.

The other day Jospen Freedy ws driving with Mr. McNabb into Walkerton when the shaft bols slipped out. The horse ran away, throwing McNabb and Freedy out on the rough gravel road. McNabb escaped without any injury, but young Freedy was badly henced.

A new puzzle has been sprung upon the inoffensive people of this city. It is an innocent-looking affair and an inexpensive one, withal, but more deadly than "pigg in the pen." This latest brain-racking device consists simply of three columns of agures, arranged thus:
