Dufferin avenue, will regret to learn of her critical illness. Her physician has advised that an operation be performed and Mrs. Smith will be removed to the hospital in a day or so.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Dobbins, of 700 Dundas street east, celebrated their golden wedding on Friday evening. Congratulations and presents, many in gold, poured in on the venerable couple. Of their children all are living.

—Jonah Williams, of Welling, where he died at the hospital today, sank struck of injuries received at Measead was 75 years old and was tomorrow via the

—Mr. Wm. New York, and will sail south London the New York, on Grand T. They will spend Christmas in the old country.

—Feshbirne was arrested in this Saturday by Detectives Rider and on the strength of a telegram from Ont., charging him with larceny. Constable Briggs came to this city today and took Feshbirne back with him.

—Rev. Timothy O'Connell, who is held trial in New York on a charge of finally assaulting a girl, left the apter House in this city under a cloud. He was charged with "conduct unbecoming of a minister," or rather "over-indulgence in liquor."

—Scores of the students of the Collegiate Institute attended the First Presbyterian church last night to greet Mr. S. R. Faskin, B.A., of Knox College, a popular master of the Institute who is studying the ministry. Mr. Faskin will undoubtedly realize the high expectations of him.

—A most enjoyable concert under the direction of Miss Alice Galbraith, was given at the asylum Friday evening. The programme was given by the following known talent: Misses Lillian Gott, Lily Lewis, Annie Patton, and little Susie Gill, and Messrs. Collins, Element, Hannan, George Watt, and Hugh Galbraith.

—Don't forget the importance of voting tomorrow. You will in all probability see your vote if you go to the polls in the half hour. There will be a long line of people to block your way until the polls close at 5 o'clock. Make your plans to vote in the forenoon. Certainly do not postpone your visit to the polls later than 3 o'clock.

—Large quantities of lumber and cord-wood have been stolen from cars standing in the Grand Trunk yards. Constables began worked on the cases and today had six youths before Superintendent Tiffin as suspects. They practically admitted the offence and were allowed to go with a warning. The next offender caught will be severely punished.

—A new time table on the M. C. R. went into effect Saturday at midnight. The early morning train, London to St. Thomas, leaves at 9:30 a.m., instead of 9:50. The evening train will arrive at 6:15 instead of 6:50. The trains on the London division will run through to Comber, instead of stopping at Comber. Trains Nos. 13 and 14, St. Thomas to London, which had no accommodation, are discontinued.

—The street Baptist Sunday school has its most regular echo-echo in who died suddenly. As a last fellow-ship to the house of the scholars, a funeral took place at the cemetery of St. Thomas. Rev. T. J. and his wife were in the funeral procession.

Police Court.

The case of James James, who is charged with a breach of the liquor license law, was again enlarged at the Police Court today, owing to the continued illness of P. C. Woolway. Albert Marshall (colored), Robt. Leslie and John Perry, three little boys, charged with throwing stones at Morris Left, were discharged with a caution. Daniel Wade, charged with a breach of the bylaw relating to horses running at large, was discharged, and Adam Hodgins, who was charged with driving over a sidewalk, was also let go. George Ballantyne, who indulged in snowballing on the street, was discharged with a warning. Three drunks were dismissed, and John Collins, who was let out on bail on Saturday, but got drunk again, was remanded until Wednesday on a charge of drunkenness and vagrancy.

THE FORESTERS.

Letter from the Chief Ranger of Court Pride.

An Anonymous Slander, Circulated in Mr. Essery's Interest, Warmly Resented.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

On reading Friday's Free Press I was much surprised to find, in a letter signed "A. O. F.," a statement that the Foresters' treatment at the hands of Mayor Essery "was resurrected at the last meeting of Court Pride of the Dominion, and a number of Bro. Fordham's admirers on hand to push the matter through." I allow me to deny that. The matter was "resurrected," but not by any of Fordham's "admirers." And as for the number of the brothers being put the matter through," allow me to say right now that we had a very large meeting, and out of a membership of there were only about eight or there, exclusive of the officers. I wrote being taken the matter in order by the chair (which of filling for the present I think you will see that I intend to state facts than to be a brother of the who has not the courage to come to a letter, sure is not a part in question. I would much rather let as the writer of sign his letter so have him make the in one sense the court of head at the
