Two More Months For Old City Hall

Expected Spencer Block Will Be Ready For Occupation Sept. 1.

The city council, at a special meeting Monday afternoon, gave the Royal Bank three months' notice that the city would quit its tenancy of the old hall Sept.

Two months, Mayor Graham explained would be sufficient time to make the alterations required to the Spencer block which will be gone ahead with as soon as the present tenants move out June 15. Ald. Robinson read a report of No. committee, recommending that the Victoria Hospital contracts, amounting to about $13,000, be awarded to C. Insel and Noble & Rich, and that the contrac for the Dundas street sewer extension, from Egerton street to the new McCormick factory district, be awarded to C. Leathorne for $2,000.

Crown Authorities Were Cold When Proposition Was Made to

Toronto, May 27.-The Company, the drama which was ordered off the stage of the Princess Theatre, left tions received from Advance Agent Bruner, who is in Hamilton, having gone there to arrange for a production of the play in the Ambitious City, a mission which, by the way, failed. After the set-back in Toronto Man ger Waite consulted with Mr. James Doughty, booking manager for the A J Small circuit, as to the possibility playing in Hamilton, Ottawa and Kings-London, however, was not considered because a stock company is playing an engagement at the principal theatre in that city this week. The idea was to have the city crown attorneys of these towns notified that the indictment against "Deborah" was based on the uncensored performance of the play in Toronto, that an appeal was ending and that, therefore, "Deborah" should be allowed production in Hamilplay, as it were, might speak for itself.

Hamilton Authorities Cold. This plan seemed feasible to Mr. Doughty and the management of the Company, and, accordingly, Advance Agent Bruner left for Hamilton and the other towns of the circuit, carrying with him notification of the appeal to band of Pepita. Pepita is taken to the several crown attorneys, and asking prison, and Steve is reunited to the girl them for permission to bill the towns and otherwise advertise that performinces of "Deborah" in its censored form rould be played in the towns on the A.

It all looked rosy, and the hope that said to spring eternal in the human reast, turned somersaults of gaiety and heer in the heart of Advance Agent Bruner when he struck Hamilton, the first city on the circuit. But in the colloquial phraseology of the day, he failed

At noon yesterday, Mr. Bruner called up Booking Manager Doughty and explained that the Hamilton authorities were cold towards his proposition. Mr Doughty then advised that in view of all the circumstances, and the good name of the A. J. ### WESTERN DRAMA FULL OF THRILLS

'Under Arizona Skies," Breezy of the Plains and Frontier Life.

"Under Arizona Skies," a stirring drama of the western plains, was presented by the Stanley Stock Company at the Grand Opera House Monday production was a pleasing one and dications are that the regiment will atevening before a large audience. The merited the generous applause accord- tend camp over strength this year, as wealthy young easterner (whose character was ably delineated by Mr. Arthur Stanley), had come to get over his disappointment at being refused by the girl he loved. In a moment of indiscretion he had married a half-breed girl. Pepita. She brought disgrace girl, Pepita. She brought disgrace upon him by her intrigues with a Mexican, Mendoza. It was while things were at their worst that Mrs. Cannon, the owner of the ranch, invited her niece to visit her. The girl comes and proves to be the former sweetheast proves to be the former sweetheart of Steve Morton. She has changed her attitude toward him, but discovering that he is married to Pepita, she realizes that the old dream is dead. In the meantime, Pepita, in a fit of jealousy, kills Mendoza. His body is discovered by Elsie Randolph, the eastern girl, who picks up a revolver bing Rees.

Under these circumstances she is discovered by Morton, who, thinking that she committed the murder, shoulders the onus himself and confesses to the crime. The real culprit is discovered by Nacipolous, the faithful Indian, who also discovers a marriage certificate showing that Mendoza was the hus-

Miss Ella Allen, in the character of Pepita, carried off a difficult role with great credit. She displayed great emotional powers in a scene where her rival, the eastern girl, and she are face to face, and both confess love for Morton.

Mr. Arthur Stanley sustained the part of the disappointed lover in a manner that drew forth plause. The part of Elsie Randolph was well handled by Miss Archibald and the other members of the cast also acquitted themselves creditably. Alto-gether the play was an accurate portrayal of life in the far west, with the exception of the part of the Indian, who was able to use English that would have staggered a Carlisle grad-
