

SERVICE REWARD.

Junior Who Has Good
the N. Imperial oration.

the R. C. G. A. Bands to Join—The Question.

LONG service decorated recently offered by the Queen as a reward for volunteer officers, will have one claimant in Victoria, being Lieut.-Colonel R. Wolferston, who has well earned the distinction in the new decoration is very resembling in some respects of the Bath. It consists of a cross and a ball in the center, the cross being in the center of the ball.
The award is a very valuable honor, and is
only given to those who have rendered valuable
service to the Empire.
The award is a very
valuable honor, and is
only given to those who
have rendered valuable
service to the Empire.

MARCH OUT.
The B.C.G.A. have come to the conclusion that the
popularity of the procession is so great
that it is necessary to increase the number of participants. The procession will be held on the 29th inst., when
the B.C.G.A. will parade
and march through the city. The procession will be held on the 29th inst.,
when the B.C.G.A. will
parade and march through the city. The procession will be held on the 29th
inst., when the B.C.G.A.
will parade and march
through the city.

THE B.C.G.A. have come to
the conclusion that the
popularity of the
procession is so great
that it is necessary to
increase the number of participants. The
procession will be held
on the 29th inst., when
the B.C.G.A. will parade
and march through the city. The procession will
be held on the 29th inst.,
when the B.C.G.A. will
parade and march through
the city. The procession
will be held on the 29th
inst., when the B.C.G.A.
will parade and march
through the city.

THE B.C.G.A. have come to
the conclusion that the
popularity of the
procession is so great
that it is necessary to
increase the number of participants. The
procession will be held
on the 29th inst., when
the B.C.G.A. will parade
and march through the city. The procession will
be held on the 29th inst.,
when the B.C.G.A. will
parade and march through
the city. The procession
will be held on the 29th
inst., when the B.C.G.A.
will parade and march
through the city.

THE B.C.G.A. have come to
the conclusion that the
popularity of the
procession is so great
that it is necessary to
increase the number of participants. The
procession will be held
on the 29th inst., when
the B.C.G.A. will parade
and march through the city. The procession will
be held on the 29th inst.,
when the B.C.G.A. will
parade and march through
the city. The procession
will be held on the 29th
inst., when the B.C.G.A.
will parade and march
through the city.

THE B.C.G.A. have come to
the conclusion that the
popularity of the
procession is so great
that it is necessary to
increase the number of participants. The
procession will be held
on the 29th inst., when
the B.C.G.A. will parade
and march through the city. The procession will
be held on the 29th inst.,
when the B.C.G.A. will
parade and march through
the city. The procession
will be held on the 29th
inst., when the B.C.G.A.
will parade and march
through the city.

CABLE LETTER.

Baron Wolferston Deserts the Liberals
—The Queen May Abdicate—Royal Wedding.

LeCaron, the Spy—A French Deputy to be Prosecuted—President Dupuy Challenged.

LONDON, May 20.—Baron Wolferston's resignation of his office as Lord in Waiting is a severe blow to the Liberals. For several years the Baron has been the most generous contributor to the cause of the Liberals, and was esteemed as one of Mr. Gladstone's closest friends and warmest supporters. Mr. Gladstone, who expected him to be the most eloquent advocate of Home Rule, has been deeply affected by his desertion. The Baron's resignation is a severe blow to the Liberals, as it shows that the Queen's Liberals are not as united as they appear to be. The Baron's resignation is a severe blow to the Liberals, as it shows that the Queen's Liberals are not as united as they appear to be.

THE QUEEN'S POSITION.
The enemies of Home Rule are making every effort to secure the abdication of the Queen in case the Home Rule bill passes. The Queen's position is a very difficult one, and she is being attacked from all sides. The Queen's position is a very difficult one, and she is being attacked from all sides. The Queen's position is a very difficult one, and she is being attacked from all sides.

THE DUKES OF YORK.
The Duke and Duchess of Teck and the Princess May have been seen at the Marlborough House. The Duke and Duchess of Teck and the Princess May have been seen at the Marlborough House. The Duke and Duchess of Teck and the Princess May have been seen at the Marlborough House.

POOR DE LIESERS.
In answer to an invitation to attend the Cobden club dinner, Ferdinand de Lesseps has sent a letter expressing merely a thousand thanks. The argument on the appeal for him, Cottin, Fontaine and Bella will be heard on June 8. The friends of these four condemned men hope to make a point of attending the trial. The friends of these four condemned men hope to make a point of attending the trial.

GUARDED BY DETECTIVES.
Major LeCaron, the celebrated spy, is being guarded by a large number of detectives. Major LeCaron, the celebrated spy, is being guarded by a large number of detectives. Major LeCaron, the celebrated spy, is being guarded by a large number of detectives.

THE FRENCH CHAMBER.
The French chamber of deputies today
had a strong debate over the question of authorizing the prosecution of M. Baudin.
The French chamber of deputies today
had a strong debate over the question of authorizing the prosecution of M.
Baudin. The French chamber of deputies today had a strong debate over the question of authorizing the prosecution of M. Baudin.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently appointed United States Consul-General in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his mission. In response to Mr. Grant's first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his appointment.

CAPITAL NOTES.

The Vancouver Election—Battle Quarantine Restrictions—The Provincial Naphtha Launch Admitted Free.

Christian Endeavor International Convention—Wedding Present for Princess May.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
OTTAWA, May 20.—The return of Andrew Haslam, member for Vancouver, was greeted to-day.
The provision of the act for the preservation of the peace in the vicinity of the public works, which have been applied to the Nelson and Fort Sheppard railway, are to cover all the territory lying within five miles on each side of the located line. The whole of the statute is not made applicable, simply those dealing with the sale of liquor within the territory. Magistrates must impose a heavy penalty for infractions of the law.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

How It is Expected the Geary Law Will be Met By Orientals.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Says a morning paper, if the Geary law is to be enforced, the Chinese are going to themselves to Mexico, South America, and British Columbia, and there wait until some plan is proposed by the Sir Complices for their return to this country. The organization is sending them to ports near the Mexican line or to the border of British Columbia. The steamship Queen, which with two or three sister ships has been lying at anchor in the bay near San Francisco for months, is being prepared to receive them. The ship is being prepared to receive them. The ship is being prepared to receive them.

WILL BE A ROYAL RACE.
Great Sweepstake Event to Come Off To-Day—The Course, the Straits.

Keen Interest in Yachting—American Participants Becoming Excited.

FROM SEATTLE.
Sloop Xora—Capt. G. V. Johnson, J. W.
Wall, C. E. Cavley, E. L. Ruddy, G. W.
Amend, F. W. Pearl, C. B. Blanchard, C. E. Nielsen, Henry Hensel, E.
M. Simpson, of Seattle, and G. A. Carpenter, of Seattle, will start on the 26th inst.
for Victoria. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew is a first-class crew. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew is a first-class crew.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

THE VICTORIA NEW CLUB.

The Doors of the Anglo-American Thrown Open to Members
and Visitors.

Very Handsomely Fitted Up—To Be
the Yachtmen's Town
Headquarters.

VICTORIA'S NEW CLUB.
The doors of the Anglo-American
club have been thrown open to members and visitors. The club has been very handsomely fitted up, and is now ready to receive its members. The club has been very handsomely fitted up, and is now ready to receive its members.

WILL BE A ROYAL RACE.
Great Sweepstake Event to Come Off
To-Day—The Course, the Straits.

Keen Interest in Yachting—American Participants Becoming
Excited.

FROM SEATTLE.
Sloop Xora—Capt. G. V. Johnson, J. W.
Wall, C. E. Cavley, E. L. Ruddy, G. W.
Amend, F. W. Pearl, C. B. Blanchard, C. E. Nielsen, Henry Hensel, E.
M. Simpson, of Seattle, and G. A. Carpenter, of Seattle, will start on the 26th inst.
for Victoria. The sloop Xora, a thirty-
four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew
is a first-class crew. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and
the crew is a first-class crew.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

NEWS OF THE PROVINCE.

Vancouver Liquor Licenses Raised—Want to Prevent Chinese Influx.

Body Found in a Slough—American Lunch Served by Customs.

THE LOCAL YACHTSMEN KEEN.
The excitement and ardor of the American yachtmen, as shown by the above dispatch, is equalled, if not excelled, by the local yachtmen. The excitement and ardor of the American yachtmen, as shown by the above dispatch, is equalled, if not excelled, by the local yachtmen.

WILL BE A ROYAL RACE.
Great Sweepstake Event to Come Off
To-Day—The Course, the Straits.

Keen Interest in Yachting—American Participants Becoming
Excited.

FROM SEATTLE.
Sloop Xora—Capt. G. V. Johnson, J. W.
Wall, C. E. Cavley, E. L. Ruddy, G. W.
Amend, F. W. Pearl, C. B. Blanchard, C. E. Nielsen, Henry Hensel, E.
M. Simpson, of Seattle, and G. A. Carpenter, of Seattle, will start on the 26th inst.
for Victoria. The sloop Xora, a thirty-
four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew
is a first-class crew. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and
the crew is a first-class crew.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIA NEW CLUB.

The Doors of the Anglo-American
Thrown Open to Members
and Visitors.

Very Handsomely Fitted Up—To Be
the Yachtmen's Town
Headquarters.

VICTORIA'S NEW CLUB.
The doors of the Anglo-American
club have been thrown open to members
and visitors. The club has been very
handsomely fitted up, and is now ready
to receive its members. The club has been
very handsomely fitted up, and is now
ready to receive its members.

WILL BE A ROYAL RACE.
Great Sweepstake Event to Come Off
To-Day—The Course, the Straits.

Keen Interest in Yachting—American Participants Becoming
Excited.

FROM SEATTLE.
Sloop Xora—Capt. G. V. Johnson, J. W.
Wall, C. E. Cavley, E. L. Ruddy, G. W.
Amend, F. W. Pearl, C. B. Blanchard, C. E. Nielsen, Henry Hensel, E.
M. Simpson, of Seattle, and G. A. Carpenter, of Seattle, will start on the 26th inst.
for Victoria. The sloop Xora, a thirty-
four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew
is a first-class crew. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and
the crew is a first-class crew.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIA NEW CLUB.

The Doors of the Anglo-American
Thrown Open to Members
and Visitors.

Very Handsomely Fitted Up—To Be
the Yachtmen's Town
Headquarters.

VICTORIA'S NEW CLUB.
The doors of the Anglo-American
club have been thrown open to members
and visitors. The club has been very
handsomely fitted up, and is now ready
to receive its members. The club has been
very handsomely fitted up, and is now
ready to receive its members.

WILL BE A ROYAL RACE.
Great Sweepstake Event to Come Off
To-Day—The Course, the Straits.

Keen Interest in Yachting—American Participants Becoming
Excited.

FROM SEATTLE.
Sloop Xora—Capt. G. V. Johnson, J. W.
Wall, C. E. Cavley, E. L. Ruddy, G. W.
Amend, F. W. Pearl, C. B. Blanchard, C. E. Nielsen, Henry Hensel, E.
M. Simpson, of Seattle, and G. A. Carpenter, of Seattle, will start on the 26th inst.
for Victoria. The sloop Xora, a thirty-
four footer, is a fine vessel, and the crew
is a first-class crew. The sloop Xora, a thirty-four footer, is a fine vessel, and
the crew is a first-class crew.

THE CHINESE.
Interview Between the Chinese Envoy
and Secretary of State
—Graham.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

THE VICTORIAN AMERICAN MINISTER.
The Vice-consul of the News
Telegraph from Vienna on interview with
him has had with Frederick Grant, United States minister to Austria-Hungary,
concerning the case of Max Judd, recently
appointed United States Consul-General
in the Austrian capital. He gives Mr. Grant's statements substantially as follows: For
some time after Judd was appointed,
he was doubtful of the success of his
mission. In response to Mr. Grant's
first request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
second request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment. In response to Mr. Grant's
third request for Mr. Judd's exequatur,
Count Kaloky, minister of foreign affairs,
said that he had no objection to his
appointment.

CLEAN SEED GRAIN

Red Fife Wheat,
Ladoga Wheat,
Am. Banner Pats,
Early Gothland Oats.

All clean and first-class, for sale by
A. O. WELLS & SON,
CHILLIWACK, B. C.

NOTICE.

To The Board of Licensing Commissioners, Municipality of North Cowichan.

GETTLEMENT—This undersigned, hereby gives notice that I will apply at the next meeting of the Board of Licensing Commissioners, for a license to sell liquor, and for a transfer of the license to sell liquor from D. H. Adair to D. H. Adair, from D. H. Adair, May 18, 1893.

W. H. DICKIE.

$50 FOR A OBIKEN.

To create an interest in the breeding of high class poultry, I will award a special prize of $50.00 cash to the person raising the best Plymouth Rock chicken hatched from eggs purchased of me.

Plymouth Rocks are unquestionably the best breed of fowls known for the land. Send for descriptive Circular of this valuable breed of fowls.

Eggs for hatching, guaranteed fresh and true to name, carefully packed in boxes, delivered to K. R. K. Express Company, $2.00 per sitting of 12. Address T. A. WILKES.

Brooder of Plymouth Rock Fowls,
W. H. DICKIE.

OLD FOR GENTLEMEN!

DR. GORDON'S
REMEDY
FOR MEN.

ALL those suffering from Nervous Weakness, Indigestion, or any other ailment, should have this remedy. It is a cure for all these ailments.
It is a cure for all these ailments.
It is a cure for all these ailments.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases of the system. It is a cure for all diseases of the system. It is a cure for all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.

THE GREAT ENGLISH PRESCRIPTION.

A successful medicine used over 50 years
thousands of cases. Cures all diseases
of the system. It is a cure for all
diseases of the system. It is a cure for
all diseases of the system. It is a cure
for all diseases of the system.