A NEW TREATY.

Commercial circles in Halifax and other places in the Maritime provinces, particularly those directly interested in the fishing industry, are stirred by a report that by the forthcoming fisheries treaty between Canada and the United States, fish will be allowed to enter Canada from the United States free of duty. Under the circumstances which at present obtain in the fishing industry, it is declared, this will be a disastrous move for this part of Canada.—Ex.

A shocking fatality occurred Friday night at Chelmsford about fifteen miles from Newcastle when Daniel McKinley, aged 76, lost his life.

ROBERTSON—MORTON.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tait, Dalhousie, on Wednesday, Nov-17th, 1920, when Mrs. Tait's eldest daughter, Marion Morton was united in marriage to Fred Murray Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson, of Maine River, Kent Co.

The ceremony which took place under an arch of evergreens and chrysanthemums, was performed by Rev. J. H. McLean, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian Church of Dalhousie, in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, with music rendered by Miss Gertrude Miller.

The bride who wore a dress of white duchess satin and veil with a bouqret of carnations and maiden hair fern, was attended by Miss Frances McPherson and was given away by her grand-father, Mr. John Dickie. The groom was unsupported.

The many beautiful gifts received testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride being a set of brown wolf furs.

The happy couple left on Thursday's Maritime for a short visit to groom's parents in Kent County and on their return will reside in Bathurst.—(Gloucester and St. John papers please copy.)
