red in St. James' Cemetery. From 9 a.m. till 2 in the afternoon the body lay in the parlor of the Bigelow resisence in Grenville-street, where it was viewed by hundreds who had known the Receased in life. Numbers had been his personal friends, others were merely acquainsances, while many had been his rivals and apponents in legal or political circles. All, however, were there to show respect for his memory as a man, for he was a man among men.

Gordon and Sampson, appearing for their Flower the Remedy.

Gordon and Sampson, appearing for their client, Mrs. Clark, applied to have the property occupied by the Salvation Army in Victoria-crescent exempted from taxation, as it was used by this organization as a Rescue Home, thus coming under the same head as a House of Industry.

The court didn't see it that way, however, and, as there was considerable land surrounding the building, were inclined to believe that the Army were allowed to have the property merely to have it in the category of charitable institutions, thereby escaping taxation.

When the name of Eliza Young was called her husband appeared. When he started in to complain of the drop in the value of land Alderman Carlyle asked if he had been to school to Richard McDonald and Col. Denison and had there learned to preach the doctrine of blue ruin.

The appellant's land at Sunnyside was assessed at $15 per foot and $16 for the corner lots. He said they were not worth $5, but when asked concerning a sale recently made there by him he had to con-corner lots. He said they were not worth $5, but when asked concerning a sale recently made there by him he had to confess that the land sold at $22 per foot.

Not a few ladies presented themselves at the court to have their names substituted instead of their husbands' as owners, merely for the pleasure of having a vote for school trustee, though they debarred their husbands from having a vote in any municipal elections by so doing.

Mr. Littlejohn put the matter before the board very plainly by stating that the husbands in question would come down and "raise the roof off the City Hall," when they found that they had been deprived of their vote.
