Another important matter to Parkdale is a southern entrance to High Park, which was discussed at some length. A committee was appointed to press this matter before the City Council, as follows: Messrs. Laxton, Perry, McRae, Peck, McMath, Dr. Lynd, Rae, McGann, Kennedy, Anderson, Murdock, Reynolds, Goulding and Cook.

Ald. Atkinson and Ald. Graham both addressed the meeting, expressing their approval of the steps taken, but not holding out much hope of the improvements being undertaken.

Perfection of Travel.

When one travels he wants to "get there," not only speedily, but safely and luxuriously. He wants to be surrounded by every appliance devised to secure safety and luxury; he wants to ride rapidly and smoothly; he wants pure air and freedom from dust, he wants elegant and artistic appointments, luxurious upholstery, easy chairs, the coinfort and tastefulness of the parlor; he wants fort and tastefulness of the parlor; he wants epicurean meals, fastidiously served, as he flies at lightning speed through arcadian landscapes; in a word, he requires all that makes travel a delight. For that reason the experienced traveler goes by the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, and enjoys the perfection of travel.
