MAY HAVE TO PAY AGAIN. Law to Decide Who is Responsible A writ was issued yesterday against David Chapman of York Township for $6000, at the instance of Mrs. Samuel Martin of the same township. The suit arises out of the alleged misspropriation of funds by Donald G. Stephenson, the missing Warden of York

missing Warden of York.

Samuel Martin died in 1880, leaving considerable property. In 1892 the widow decided to sell tot 2, concession 4, York, to David Chapman. The sale was negotiated through Warden Stephenson, Chapman paying $2500 cash and executing a mortgage for the balance of $6000. Stephenson had the mortgage made payable to himself and subsequently hypothecated it with Mr. Ira Palmer. 384 Rusholme-road, this city, receiving $4000, which sum he appropriated. He has paid the interest to Mrs. Martin since 1892, and she supposed that the mortgage had been made payable to her, and that Stephenson was merely collecting the interest. Mrs. Martin avers that she never in structed Chapman to make the mortgage out to Stephenson, and the present action is instituted to recover the $4000. ing Warden of York.

most enjoyable concert was given or Saturday night by some of the guests of the Summit House, Port Cockburn, in aid of the Fresh Air Fund. Thirty dollars was added to the funds of this deserving charity. Those who took part were Mrs. Charles Wright of Detroit, a lady with a deep rich wright of Detroit, a lady work artistic rendering of her numbers showed that she ranked with the first professionals of the day. Miss Hatch, a young lady well known in Toronto's musical circles, delighted everybody with her beautiful clear high soprano voice, Mr. Forsyth of Toronto played an impromptu of Chopin in his usual brilliant scyle. A capital recitation from Henry V. was given by Mrs. Exall, an American lady, and received much applause. Master Henry Bourlier played a piano solo waltz by Moskowski with great care and attention; his clear tone and sympathetic touch were noticed throughout this difficult composition. Master Charlie Wright played a pretty Spanish melody on the mandolin in excellent style. Mr. Percy McMahon gave a comic song, "All About Columbus," and fairly brought down the house. Two-alittle girls, the Misses Armstrong, danced a pretty minuet. They were graceful in their movements and pleased everyone.

St. Paul was the strongest of the Grangers to-day. It is claimed to have pool support.

The net earnings of C.B. & Q. for June show a decrease of $41,500. Henry A. King & Co.'s special wire from Hubbard, Price & Co., New York: The rally in stocks to-day was induced by the covering in shorts in the Grangers and Gas. but was not maintained in the final dealings. During the last hour an easier tone developed and the general list closes to-night irregular and feverlsh in tone. Insiders continue to pick up Gas at the decline, and this buying has developed a new short interest. Prediction of showers in corn belt gave a steadier tone to R. I. and Burlington. Missouri Pacific was also better supported as a result of more seasonable weather reports from Kansas. There was some demand for Whisky and Cordage for commission houses.

and at primary points over 1,200,000 cables steady; exports fair, about 300,000 bushels. Wheat shorts here were occasionally driven in by the corn advances. There was talk of Roumanian crop damage. It looks as if Chicago next Monday would show an increase of at least 2 million bushels. Professionals are having a hard time of it in corn. They keep on selling and the country keeps on buying. The corn belt has had a lot of showers, but they are scattered, and they leave a good deal of territory unrelieved. There is no immediate prospect of this crop getting the relief it requires, a general rain. The near-by deliveries are getting relatively stronger.
