The Sixth Ward.

On Saturday night a deputation of electors of Ward 6, headed by John Laxton and Dr. Orr, waited upon Dr. Rowe of Queen-street west and requested him to stand for alderman in that ward. The doctor consented, and will be proposed at the nomination to-day. Dr. Rowe has been a resident of the Sixth Ward for the last 12 years, and is well known to all the West End. He has been asked on several occasions to run for the countle was a separate municipality he conted the mayoralty of that place, and as only defeated by a few votes. Dr. dek, an old resident of Parkdale, is runing for trustee in the Sixth Ward.

Mr. Saunders in the Field.

Ex-Ald. Saunders has authorized Mr. spayid Walker to state that he intends to seek nomination as alderman for No. 8 Ward.

Rev. Joseph Odery, pastor of the Berkeley-street Methodist Church, preached last night on the coming municipal elections choosing for his text the words of Jethro, the Priest of Midiah, Moses' father-in-law, in Exodus xviii., 21. "Moreover, thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God; men of truth, hating covetousness." Enlarging on this text, the preacher said that the ballot, though seemingly a small thing, was a power of immense good or immense evil. The voter could say that "A King am I." The polling booth was the voter's palace. It was For Whom to Vote. say that "A King am I." The polling booth was the voter's palace. It was his duty to vote for upright, honorable men—men of the people, not of a party. The man who belonged to a party was no longer free. The councillors to be elected must be men who never swerve, never cringe to gain the influence of one section of the community, men who would cast off anyone who would offer his influence for a favor, as St. Paul did the adder. Above all, the councillors for 1895 must be men who were not covetous. The terrible acts disclosed during the past few weeks were all due to the covetousness of officials. The people's choice must also be gifted men, men skilled in argument, and above all representatives of God. The citizens should vote as Christians for Christians who would abolish the saloons and all the places of evil.

Incidentally the speaker declared that every man who had paid a bribe or agrepted a brib should be forced to make restitution, the sums refunded to go to city's charitable institutions.
