vaptured a game. Wilkes-Barre were the victims yesterday over the Don, and they were in it until 26 of the other fellows went out. Then Crane lifted the ball over the left field fence for his side's winning run. Both twirlers did good work and pretty evenly divided the honors. The visitors' errors were costly, each allowing a run. They were wild throws in the seventh and eighth. It was a peculiar sort of a game, and although some pretty plays were executed none of the players seemed to have much ginger. Pop Smith made his first appearance as an Indian and did himself proud. The few cranks present sized him up as a great ball player and now expect to see the aggregation suddenly and pect to see the aggregation suddenly and steadily rise from their present humble position.
