

WEEKLY MONITOR.

Spa Spring Chills.

Mr. Edward Palmer is seriously ill. Mr. Murray Elliott has returned from St. John.

Mr. J. F. Finlayson left on Saturday for Seattle, B. C., where he will remain for several weeks.

Mr. Primrose Nelly has been quite ill for some time. Her children also have several fevers. Mr. J. G. Roach is on the sick list.

Avard L. Dodge, who is teaching at Kenilworth, met with an accident, by the explosion of his gun, while engaged in shooting ducks. Fortunately he escaped with only a slight scratching.

Miss Ward is doing good work in her school—doing her best to make it a success. The trustees have placed several signs upon its walls, and sent them in room for greater improvement.

Our veteran hunter, A. Weasel, accompanied by J. G. Roach and John Hall, was out again as far as Nineteen-mile Hill calling moose. They succeeded in killing three within a few days, but were unable to capture them.

The Misses Mills and Minerva Hall, daughters of Capt. J. R. Hall, with others, received the sacred rite of confirmation at the hands of Bishop Courtenay at Middleton church, Oct. 28. His lordship then gave a short address, upon the happiness to be derived from living a life of piety, and also the temptations they would have to encounter all along the way.

From the Misses are still running and raising over, but are not as brisk as one time. John Goucher has returned home after being absent eighteen months in Montana, seeking for wealth that eluded his grasp. Perhaps his experience may prove of some value.

William Brown, son of the postmaster, is from the States making a short visit to the home of his boyhood. He takes a very active part in the social religious services. We seldom hear of a more diligent and conscientious man as he gives for the Master.

E. H. Banks is building an addition to his shop 21x35 ft. so that he can with more comfort and convenience fill and supply the demands of his growing business. In addition to his planer he has purchased this season a mangle and tenm mangle, and is now erecting an organ for the use of the services of the "Barn" hall. The other was held at Mr. Baker's O. E. S. room, and was presided over by a committee of the services.

Two picnics have lately been held, one at the home of the Rev. J. H. Brown, and the other at the home of the Rev. J. H. Brown. The first was held at the home of the Rev. J. H. Brown, and the other at the home of the Rev. J. H. Brown.

Lawrence Town Items. The Rev. J. E. Eaton delivered a lecture on his trip to the World's Fair on Tuesday evening in the Baptist church.

R. R. Bailey, V. S., of Weymouth, has been here for the last four or five days on professional business.

Our school seems to be attracting unusual attention, this winter. Several pupils are attending the advanced department from surrounding sections.

J. R. Elliott has returned from St. John, apparently much refreshed by his visit to the commercial capital of New Brunswick.

Mrs. Giddens Barclay, who has been residing at the home of her son, Edwin Barclay, near Captain's corner, and who was paralyzed of the right side of her neck body, has now quite recovered.

Paradise Dreams. As we write to call to mind the words of Hildegarde Smith as she writes of November.

"Like a smile on the face of the sky, Like a tear on the cheek of a child, Over mountains, and streams, and hills, There can be no better expression of the weather than those lines of verse."

Early on Wednesday evening last the barn on Mr. Edgar Egan's farm, formerly owned by the late Israel Longley, Esq., were destroyed by fire. The barn was one living in the house at the time, the fire was quite well started before it was discovered, and they were both burned, together with the hay and some grain. Mr. E. is preparing to build a new one on the place where he resides, instead of re-building on the site of the destroyed barn.

The Rev. Henry Slocomb preached on Wednesday evening last. He is a son of the late Slocomb, Esq., and was a resident of this place, and brother of Mr. Major Slocomb.

Mr. Benj. Starratt returned from the World's Fair on Friday last. The Division still holds its own, hoping to be more interesting as the winter draws near.

Granville Ferry. Rev. Mr. Crawford, pastor of St. Luke's, Halifax, preached here on Sunday evening for a good audience.

James Green is home on a visit. He has not changed any after an absence of some years in Boston—a small town, a quiet life for every one he meets. Vernon Amherst is also home from Lynn on a visit.

All glad to see the boys home, as it only for a short time, but would sooner have them come to stay.

The main pipes of the water works are all down, and the large gang of men discharged. Plumbers are busy now putting the pipes into the houses and stables of those who have decided to take advantage of the option.

Isaiah W. Wilson, of Weymouth, has been paying some of his friends here a visit. He is very busy now making arrangements to complete his history of Digby County, most of the manuscripts of which is now in the printer's hands.

Clarence Chaps. Clarence Division accepts the invitation given by Nelson Division, and will present a mass on Saturday evening, 18th inst. Deacon K. J. Elliott has been confined to the house for the past week from the effects of a bad cold. Mr. H. H. Jones, who has been working on the farm, has been laid up with a cold.

Our farmers are busy ploughing and otherwise engaged finishing up fall work. It seems to require the collecting influence of the weather rather than the intensity of the season to induce most farmers to put on the finishing touches.

A very interesting meeting of the W. M. A. Society was held at the home of Mrs. Joshua Bay on the evening of Wednesday the 8th, at which about twenty-five were present. We have at present forty-two members enrolled. Many many others specially invited.

William Whitakers. Mr. Phineas Charlton has been building an addition to his "L." Mr. George Morse and wife left last week for Newton, Mass., for the winter. Some of our young men who have not tired of farming have taken up trapping for awhile.

Master Willie Baker, son of Holmes Baker, while employed with W. C. Staffier plucking apples, fell from a tree and dislocated his shoulder. It is improving fast. The Williamson Milling Co., under the management of E. Ketch, had a very narrow escape from being burnt down last week, but the flames were soon extinguished with help and water.

The school and young people of this place met in the hall on Friday evening to re-organize the Orange but a very little business was done, as it takes a little more push and energy.

Boxbury Rumbles. We are glad to hear that Malcolm Hinds who has been ill for several weeks, is recovering.

Miss Ruth Kendall has returned from Paradise, where she has been visiting friends. Strawberry blossom, in abundance, have been found here during the past week. David Layte, Esq. is making a visit at his home.

Mr. George Dixon and S. S. Ruggles, Customs Collector, have been out relieving one of a few partridges during the past week.

Round Hill Siftings. One LeCain, Jun., has his new house in course of erection.

Our postmaster is preparing for his service by building an office near the R. R. The annual meeting of the Agricultural Society was held in the hall on Tuesday evening, the 7th.

Rev. F. M. Young of Bridgewater preached in the Baptist church, Sunday evening, the 13th.

Nitoux Falls.

The Weasel that shot the moose a few weeks ago, passed through this village Monday evening.

Within the past week this community has mourned the death of a young man, Mr. David Hutt, who with his family occupies part of the Nitoux Falls property.

Mr. M. Thorne, action boss on the N. S. Central, leaves this morning for his home in the town of Nitoux Falls. Mr. Thorne expects to return Friday to resume charge of his section, while his family will remain among Mrs. T.'s friends.

Consolidator R. E. Luckie, manager of the Nitoux Falls mine, was in town yesterday, in consultation with the trustees. Their conversation was somewhat lively. Mr. Luckie, we learn, has secured from Bradford Willet, a lease of his iron mine.

The staging was raised Monday to the Temperance Hall, verifying the rumor, that it is to have a new roof. It will be remembered that the first story was purchased by the Baptist friends for a place of worship, but the hope is long to have it ready for occupancy.

Mr. Aubrey Foster and Supreme Vitto are making preparations for an expedition to the South Pole or in that direction. They expect to put the winter trapping and hunting, and will circumnavigate the globe, on foot, the great lakes and rivers of that country abounds. We hope that success will attend their enterprise.

Our esteemed neighbor, Mr. Solomon Drew, has secured the agency for the first of this year on a visit. Two months ago he returned here, obtained employment in the Nitoux Falls mine, and has since been in New York. His home was most unhappy, owing to the death of his wife, Mrs. Drew, who died of a heart attack. While in New York he asked his wife for sixty cents. She told him she could not give him more than a loaded revolver, his wife on the floor and said, "I'll shoot you if you don't give me the money."

Mrs. Savage handed over the money, and after striking her head on the wall, she fell face to the floor. On another occasion she was told to give her husband a loaded revolver, his wife on the floor and said, "I'll shoot you if you don't give me the money."

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Halifax Man Deliberately Shoots his Wife and Two Children.

Halifax, Nov. 11.—It was a terrible tragedy which horrified the city this morning. Richard D. Savage, 30 years of age, murdered his twenty-five year old wife, his three year old son and then sent a bullet crashing into his own skull. Savage was married six years ago to Miss Maggie Lasham, one of a large family brought up in Halifax. He and his brothers were for several years in the industrial school. Before his marriage Savage was thought to be all right, though for the past five years his mother has been an inmate of the Provincial insane asylum, a legend that was apparently true. His father has been dead for many years and was a sea captain. Shortly after the marriage the couple removed to New York, where Savage obtained employment in various ways, but he was not a success. He was an electric car, even before Savage married, though his mother was known to be a murderer acted strangely.

Mrs. Conroy, sister of the dead woman, told a reporter this afternoon that on one occasion, when urging her to marry him, and she declined, he beat her with a stick. Maggie (producing a revolver), "I determined to shoot my own head off if you won't let me shoot you and myself both."

She married him, and their three year old child, her, himself, and their three year old child. Mrs. Savage, the murdered wife, was in this city last year on a visit. Two months ago she returned here, obtained employment in the Nitoux Falls mine, and has since been in New York. His home was most unhappy, owing to the death of his wife, Mrs. Drew, who died of a heart attack. While in New York he asked his wife for sixty cents. State Elections.

The elections that took place in some of the United States, on Tuesday last, have almost gone Republican. Massachusetts, Ohio, South Dakota, New York and New Jersey have gone Republican. Governor William McKinley is elected in Ohio, while New York is swept clean almost by the Republican ticket.
