

INDEX to the Third Volume.

St. John's river, Page 22 St. John de Puerto Rico, or Boniquen, 373 St. Thomas the apostle's arrival in India, his several voyages, one of his miracles; another miracle; his death, 573 St. Thomas's town, 587 St. Vincent's port in Chile, 30 St. Victorian's river, 22 Salt river in Chile, 16 Salt found on a herb in Chile, 27 Salt and cask for fishing, 479 Salutes at sea how to be regulated, 329 Sammoryn, sovereign of Malabar, 559. His dress, 561 Sandal, or sander's-tree in Chile, 43 Sandwich, the people base and ill-affected, 213. Advantage the Dutch may take of it in a war with England, ibid. More of their villany, 215 Santa Maria, 377 St. Jago city, capitol of Chile described; its conveniencies; a noble street in it, 106. Its town-house, 107. Church of St. Dominick; Franciscans convent, 108. Jesuits church, 109. Its government; court of the royal Audiencia, 109. This court of great advantage to the city, 110. Its foundation, riches, militia, 111. Its vast increase and trade, 112 Saphirs, 590 Sea of Chile, 27 Sea-Coasts, ports, and havens of Chile, 29 Sea-Wolves, or seals, 33 Sea beyond the ocean discovered, 382 Seasons in Chile, 3 Sebald de Weert comes to Ceylon, differs with the emperor, 610. Invites him aboard, speaks too boldly; which is the cause of his and his companions death, 611 Sebastian Cabot his discoveries, 402 Sebastian Cano, a Spaniard, the first that sailed round the world, 357 Sects in the east, 574 Security to England, 424 Serpents in Ceylon, 750 Serpent-Catcher, 751 Serpent-Stone, 591 Sevaldo islands, 50 Several sea-engagements betwixt the Portuguese and Dutch, 720, 721 Sheathing of ships, 309 Sheep of Chile, 40 Ships of the bishop of Placentia lost in the straits of Magellan, 53 Ships built by king James and king Charles I. 245 Ships built in Spain from 1590 to 1600, 314 Ships burnt and destroyed by the Portuguese at Diu, 526 Siamdichemi murdered, 780 Siege of Cochin raised, 569 Siege of Batecalo, 641	Silveria, governor of Diu, prepares for his defence, Page 532 Simplicity of the Indians, 83 Siri Rama, 781 Skirmish betwixt the Portuguese and Dutch, 729, 730 Slaughter of giants, 785 Small-Pox, the Indians opinion about them, 763 Snakewood, its use; how first discovered, 747 Snow on the mountains of Chile, 11 Soboral island of Chile, 45 Sofar taken prisoner, 532. His treachery, 534. He attacks Diu, ibid. Is killed, 536 Soliman lands and attacks the Portuguese at Diu; retreats, 532. Renews the siege, attacks the place, and is repulsed, ibid. His treachery with the king of Aden, 538, 539 Sovereignty of the seas of England, 250 South-Sea, remarks on its navigation, 28. When first heard of, and its riches, 86. Its discovery continued, and its ports and islands, 88. Discovered by Valco Nunez de Balboa, 364 South wind most favourable in Chile, 27, 28 Spain, how to have been ruined by a fleet, 243 Spaniards take Atagualpa's ransom, and put him to death, 98. Drawn into an ambush through covetousness, 119. Beaten a second time by the Araucanos. Fly from the city of the Conception, 131 Spanish fleet lost in the straits of Magellan, 53 Spanish ships sent safe from Dover to Dunkirk, in spite of the Dutch, by king James I. 210 Special duties of the officers of the king's ships at sea, 299 Spilberg's observation of twenty five ports in the straits of Magellan; he is assaulted by the Indians, 29 Springs extremely cold, 15 Spies hanged, 659 Stars of Chile, 37 State of Portugal, Anno 1625. 229. Of the Canaries and Tercera islands, 230. Of Andalusia, Sevil, 231. Of the straits, 232 State of the West-Indies, ibid. Of Ireland, 339. Of Scotland, 340. Of the harbours in France, 416 Steward, and his mate, their office, 311 Stone-Bridge, an hundred leagues long across the sea, a fable, 786 Story of a Chilenian, 68. Of a pilot said to have died in the house of Columbus, 80. Of Sir William Monfon, and a Portuguese at Lisbon, 452. Another of Sir William at Villa Franca, 455. Of two pirates,
---	--