

toleration is enjoyed than ever. The Waldensian chapel at Leghorn, so long closed, has been opened, and since then has been crowded with most respectable audiences. The pertinacious opposition by which it was sought to exclude the Waldensians from the town has served only to fix attention on them. At Rome itself, it is said, the Bible is being read to such an extent that, "when liberty is there proclaimed, the movement in the north will be cast into the shade." It is authenticated that in many of the farms adjacent to the city the Bible has become the object of secret, but daily study.

THE ABORIGINAL INHABITANTS OF AUSTRALIA—MISSIONARY OPERATIONS AMONGST THEM.—A most remarkable event has occurred in connection with the labours of the Rev. Jas. Causland, Primitive Methodist minister, Goulburn, Australia. A tribe of native blacks have located themselves at Jerrawa, about forty miles beyond Goulburn. Their camp being convenient to the Primitive Methodist Church, they were attracted by the singing, and many of them attended the services. In a letter dated June 17, just received, the Rev. Mr. Causland says,—"They have been regular in their attendance on my ministry during the last eight months. On all occasions they have shown the most marked attention during the delivery of the Word. I believe many of them to be truly penitent, and I have baptised seventeen of these people. A Sunday-school has been established amongst them, which they attend." This is certainly the most wonderful affair in connection with this much neglected race, as they have hitherto been looked upon by many as incapable of receiving religious instruction.—Sydney Correspondent of Wesleyan Times.
