RING OUT THE OLD.

Ring, New Year bells, ring loud and clear,
With merry peals so full of cheer.
Ring in the boy that's first at school;
Ring out the dunce-block and the fool.
Ring in the boy that's bright as day,
That loves to work and loves to play.
Ring out the idler and the drone;
Ring out the grumblers, everyone;
Ring out the boy who will not lend
A willing hand to help a friend.
Ring in new school books and new toys;
Ring out all things that ruin boys;
Ring out the smoker and the smoke;
Ring out old habit's ugly yoke.
Ring out the swearer from the street;
Ring out the fighter and the cheat;
Ring out the child that doesn't care;
Ring in good children everywhere.

A NEW HEBRIDES GIRL.

Here you have a picture of a Christian New Hebrides girl. She may not be pretty but she has a good face, telling of a good character, which is the highest kind of beauty.

I would not like to put a picture of a heathen New Hebrides girl in your RECORD, but if I was to do so, you would see the great contrast; and how much the Gospel, which you have helped to send, has done for the people of those Islands.
