"TRIUMPH OF THE AGE." Attention is called to the advertisement of The Eno Steam Generator Company, Limited, on page 92 of this issue. This Generator is being adopted by the leading manufacturers in Canada and the United States. Every steam user should investigate its merits.

J. L. O. VIDAL & SON, City of Quebec, are agents to sell and handle on commission all sorts of new and second-hand machinery, engines, boilers, pumps, agricultural implements belting, hose, safes, saws, files, bolts, machines and tools for shoe factories, etc. Consignments solicited. Best references given.

THE HEESON IMPROVED SHAKING FURNACE GRATE has no equal for all kinds of furnaces, round or square, boilers heating furnaces, ovens and stoves. It is the only grate that will clean fires without opening fire doors. It is the strongest bar known, having the most air space, thus securing better combustion. These bars are saving more fuel and generating more steam and will last longer than any other bars on the market. Ten per cent. saving in fuel guaranteed or no sale. References on application. HEESON GRATE BAR Co., 38 King St. East, Toronto.

FOR SALE, A VALUABLE CANADIAN PATENT.—The Trenholm Improved Perpetual Hay Press, patented 1882, has been manufactured in New Brunswick for nine years, and stands without a rival in the Maritime Provinces. As it has not been introduced in the Upper Provinces, the purchaser can, if he manufactures there, get practically a complete control of the business in Canada, as this machine is cheaper, stronger, easier running and more durable than any other Press of its class, and is well protected by patent. Full investigation invited. Terms easy. Write for particulars to A. J. TRENHOLM, Sussex, N.B.

A RISING TOWN.—The Town of West Toronto Junction possesses exceptional residential and business advantages, and promises to speedily become the chief manufacturing centre of the Dominion. This town has the following railways, viz: Grand Trunk Main line (Carlton West Station); Northern Division of the Grand Trunk (Davenport Station); The Toronto, Grey and Bruce, and Credit Valley, and Ontario and Quebec Divisions of C.P.R., and Belt Line Railway (now in progress). The town offers to large manufacturers free sites, water at cost and exemption from taxation. Any information regarding the same will be given upon application to ROBT. J. LEIGH, Town Clerk, or D. W. CLENDENAN, Mayor.

WEST TORONTO JUNCTION ENTERPRISES.—The ten large factories which have located at West Toronto Junction during the past three years are all doing large trades. The "Barnum Iron and Wire Works," the "Toronto Rolling Mills and Forging Company," and others about to locate will swell the paying industries of the town and augment its population. A large number of fine residences and business blocks have added to its appearance and to its facilities for supplying the peoples' wants. A perfect fire alarm system (the "Gaynor"), and an efficient system of water-works, both now in operation, with sewers, electric lights and improved streets now contemplated, will add to the protection and the comfort of the people and their houses. Free sites, free water and exemption from taxes are inducements offered to first-class manufacturers, and it is now acknowledged by all that Toronto's western suburb, with its great continental railway connections, is destined to be among the most prosperous cities of Canada. Dr. Carleton is Chairman of the Factory Committee.

Good Housekeeping is an original magazine—not alone in the articles which grace its column, but in the editor's conception of the field to be filled and the manner of filling it. Having a clear and well-defined purpose, this able publication moves steadily forward, improving with age and experience, and affording an excellent illustration of what a household journal, designed especially for mothers and housewives, but catering to all the members of the home circle, should be. It is never sensational, but always reliable. Good Housekeeping for August recognizes the vacation season, not by suspending publication, or devoting its pages largely to the details of sports and outings; but, with a just recognition of the necessities of outdoor festivities and recreation, aims to make the indoor life as free from tax as possible for the many housewives who scarcely know what vacation means, save as it brings to them an added care and heavier labor. This model magazine, regularly received and carefully read in any household, will do more than can be estimated to aid the mistress of the home, and to lighten her burdens, by bringing to her assistance the wisdom of others in all parts of the country. The publication was never more interesting or valuable than at present. Clark W. Bryan & Co., Springfield, Mass.

A PAGE of the last issue of The Dominion Illustrated presents a complete group of portraits of the Canadian Bisley team of 1891, with a brief sketch of the shooting record of each member. It is timely and interesting. Another page shows the Canadian exhibit at the Royal Agricultural Fair, Doncaster, Eng., and the Prince and Princess of Wales and suite arriving and departing from the same. There are portraits and biographical sketches of the late J. Beaufort Hurlbert, LL.D., widely remembered in connection with the Jesuit Estates Bill controversy, and of F. Blake Crofton, the well-known Nova Scotia litterateur. A full page engraving shows that prince of gothic structures, the famed cathedral at Rheims, which is made the subject of a fine description by Miss A. M. McLeod. Of Canadian churches, there are exterior and interior views of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, with a most interesting historical article on early Anglicanism in Upper Canada. Other engravings include Windsor, N.S., in 1840; ruins of the old house near Montreal, where, it is said, Amherst and Vaudreuil signed the articles of capitulation in 1760; on the Lower St. Lawrence, showing Cacouna Beach and Tadoussac Bay; interior of Fort Henry, Kingston; the Studley Quoit Club, of Halifax, with a sketch of the history of this club, beloved of English army and navy officers, and a reproduction of F. D. Millet's "Michaelmas Daisies." "Among the Bluenoses," by Sidney Owen, is a bright contribution, and Mrs. Curzon's description of a trip to Bobcaygeon breathes upon us the breath of the fields and streams "beyond the railway." This number is a particularly good one throughout.

Outing for August is as fresh and wholesome as a lake breeze. Where the publishers manage to find such a wealth of delightful information about travel, sports and pastimes is a mystery; but they do find it month after month, and that it can be found is a great credit to our people. The love of nature and the intimate acquaintance with every gentlemanly amusement displayed by the contributors to Outing's pages is an encouraging indication of a national leaning toward a healthier style of literature and toward those beneficial exercises which tend to build up a stalwart nation and assure for Americans a proud position among the great powers of the world. The contents are: "Big Game in Colorado," by Ernest Ingersoll; "Canoeing on the Miramichi," by Rev. Wm. C. Gaynor; "Four Days' Swordfishing," by John Z. Rogers; "Down Hill with a 'Star,'" by Dr. Alfred C. Stokes; "Running High Jumping," by Malcolm W. Ford; "A Day with the Woodcock," by Ed. W. Sandys; "Yacht Clubs of the East," by Capt. A. J. Kenealy; "Photographing in the White Mountains," by Ellerslie
