

TREASURER'S ACCOUNT.—(Continued.)

			Mission Fund.	Institute Fund.	Synod Fund.
1860.
June 14	Received from McKillop	$3 00
" 15	Do Columbus and Brooklin.	$87 65	$10 10
	Do Port Hope	40 00	5 00
	Do Whitby	7 00
	Do Amherst Island	12 00	3 00	2 00
			2104 31	169 84	280 43
	In Fund 20th January, 1860	817 42½	9 46½
			2921 78½	179 30½
	Paid since 20th January	745 72
	In Fund 16th June, 1860.....	2176 01½
	Institute Fund:—
	Paid Officer, Fuel and Gas$90 00
	Do Dr. Thornton attending Meetings of Com. from 1855 to 1860 24 75			118 75
	Paid Rev. R. Torrance 4 00
	In Fund.....		60 55½
	Due the Professor $306 65.
	Synod Fund:—
	Arrear 31st December, 1859..$142 66½
	Paid Clerk	72 95½			242 62
	Do Rev. Thos. Christie 20 00
					37 81
" 18	Received from Hibbert 2nd quarter.....	18 00
	Do Waddington, United States	49 00
	In Foreign Fund, 20th January, 1860.....				$753 35

MEETING OF U. P. SYNOD.—CANADA.*

On the 12th June, the Synod commenced its twenty fourth Session in Hamilton. The Rev. Wm. Ormiston, D. D., retiring Moderator, preached an exceedingly able and eloquent sermon from Ephesians III. 8, "Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ." The preacher, after an introduction, characterized by lofty thoughts and glowing language, remarked that the text embraced—firstly, a statement of the wondrous theme—secondly, of the grand design—and thirdly, of the appropriate character of the Christian Ministry. Passing over the second of these, he dwelt upon the first and third. There was a large audience present, composed in part of those who had come to take part in the proceedings with which the Synod was to be occupied for some days.

After prayer and praise, and the pronouncing of the apostolic benediction, the Synod was constituted with prayer, the roll made up, and the election of a new Moderator proceeded to. Dr. Ormiston having first expressed his thanks for the honour put upon him in having called him to occupy that chair, and the compara-

* We are indebted to a friend for this Report, and we believe it will be found correct.—Ed.