ON LAND OR SEA."

There is something in the sunlight There is something in the sunlight
Which I never saw before;
There's a note within the robin's song
I did not hear of yore;
There's something—ah, I know not what!
But something everywhere
But something everywhere
That makes the world this morning seem
Most marvellously fair!

I awakened very early
And I watched the sun arise,
And is seemed to me shat Heaven
Must be dawning in the skies;
For a glory and a gladness,
Passing words of mine to show,
Flashed from out the eastern portals
On the waking world below.

All the water gleamed like gladness, Every streamer in the sky Seemed the arms of little children Flung in joyousness on high; All the birds on all the bushes Joined their melody to pour-Surely never was a morning Ushered in like this before!

Is it fact or is it fancy?

Does the secret in my heart
Unto everything it shines on Spurious joyousness impart?
Or shall all the world grow gladder As it seems to me to day?
Is it true or is it seeming?
Who shall tell? I cannot say.

Ah, I care not! Does it matter?
Tis enough for me to know
That the world to me is gladder Than it was a year ago.
That on earth and sky and water Lies a radiance, false or true, That shall never fade or falter, Never he less strange and new !

If my glad heart gilds creation Well it may, for it is glad, Past the power of shade or shining Any more to make it sad; Never yet on earth or Heaven, Never yet on land or sea, Shone the light of that great gladness Which my God has given me.

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER SHONE A REPLY TO THE RESCRIPT.

PARNELLITES SEND A MANIFESO TO ROME.

An Outspoken Defense of the Plan of Campaign-The Greatest Respect Expressed for the Holy See, but no Politics Wanted from Rome.

DUBLIN, May 17.—Forty Parnellites, in-cluding Mesars, Dillon and O'Brien, sat nine hours in the Mansion house to-day discussing the Papal rescript. A sub-committee was appointed, consisting of Mesers. D. Sullivan, T. D. Sullivan, O'Brien, Redmond, Healy and Harrington, with Messrs. Kenny and Clancy as secretaries, to draw up resolutions of the principles agreed to. The meeting prepared a manifesto to the following effect:

Being aware that the Papal rescript is Being aware that the Papal rescript is being used by enemies of the Holy See and of the Irish people to the prejudice of the Irish cause, to estrange the people and their spiritual guides and to increase the dangers which threaten the people, and being mindful of our obligations to the Roly See and of our duty as constitutionally elected representatives, we have deliberated together and adopted these resolutions:

That the allegations of fact put forth in the circular are to our knowledge unfounded, and could not, we venture to affirm, have been promulgated under the authority of the Holy Office if statements so prejudicial to the Irish people had been tested by reference to the Irish prelates and the elected representatives of the people. That the assertion that freedom of centract prevails as to the letting of land in Ireland, except in an insignificant minority of cases, is unfounded and unwarrantable, and is dis-proved by the fact that the whole course of agrarian legislation for Ireland for at least eighteen years has proceeded upon the nonexistence of free contracts. Furthermore, since the inception of the movement known as the "plan of campaign" the present Tory Government has been obliged to enact a statute for the purpose of breaking over a hundred thousand contracts of tenancy on the ground that they were one-sided.

That the constitution and adjudication of will shortly take his departure from our the rent fixing courts afford inadequate midst, the publication of a list of his predeminst, the photocord uninteresting.

Cessors may not prove uninteresting.

The following is a list of the Governors-General under the British regime from that time to Confederation 1887 in a legislature controlled by land-British regime from that time to Confederation: 1765, Gen. James Murray; 1766 and 1785, Gen. Sir Guy Carleton (Lord Dorchester); 1773. General Frederick Haldimand; 1797, Major-General Prescott; 1808, Sir James Craig; 1811, Sir George Prevost; 1813, Sir Gordon Drummond; 1816, Sir John Cope Sherbrooke; 1818, Duke of Richmond; 1819, Sir Peregrine Maitland; 1820, Earl of Dalhousie; 1828, Sir James Kempt; 1830, Lord Aylmer; 1835, Lord Gosford; 1838, Sir John Coldorns (Lord Seaton); 1838, Sir John Coldorns (Lord Seaton); 1839, Hon Chas. Poulett Thompson (Lord Sydenham); 1842, Sir Charles Bagot; 1843, Sir Chas. Metcalfe; 1845, Earl Cathoart; the relations of life. the relations of life.

Second, that we repudiate the assumption that the status of Irish farmers is that of mere tonants at will and assert that not only in equity but in law the dominant interest in holdings belongs to the tenant who has executed improvements; and we attribute much of the prevailing discontent to disregard of our constant protests against the imposition of rents on improvements.

Third—We cannot refrain from expressing our regret that the Holy Office is silent regarding the source of provocation of the evil and disorder affecting the Irish people. Fourth—This silence is the more to be de-plored in the interests of religion and of our mutual cause, because it has enabled enemies to misuse the name of the Holv See and because the admonition of the rescript was against the systematic violation of justice and charity committed by way of attack upon our homes and the property of our people.

Fifth—That the demand of the Irish people for agrarian reform and political liberty is make the necessary arrangements for his de-parture for that country. methods of organization prescribed or allowed by the constitution to which the Irish people owe whatever they have won of civil and religious freedom, that the force of this national movement against unconstitutional coercion and organized calumny will continue to be exerted until we shall have achieved

BOCCOSS. Sixth—While unreservedly acknowledging the spiritual jurisdiction of the Holy See, we, as guardians of those civil liberties which our Catholic forefathers resolutely detended feel bound to solemnly ressert that the Irish Catholics can recognize no right of the Holy See to interfere with the Irish people in the management of their political affairs.

A HOME FOR GIRLS. The Boston Globe publishes the following: There are thousands of working girls in Boston whose weekly salary is not more than $3 and whose character is above reproach. Heaven only knows how they are able to exist on such a wretched pittance and what lives of uninterrupted misery they lead. Shut up eight or ten hours a day in rooms with vitiated atmosphere, sleeping at night in attics or crowded rooms and subsisting on unwholesome food, what wonder that hundreds of them fall. It seems strange that, although vast wealth is yearly given in Boston for charitable and benevolent purposes, ton for charitable and benevolent purposes, steps have not until recently been taken to establish some sort of home for poor and respectable working girls, for those who slave in stores, offices and manufacturing establishments. The "heathen," the redman and the Indian are looked after, but, save in individual cases, the needs of struggling girls at home have the needs of struggling girls at home have been neglected. It was left for the Catholic church, which is ever awake to the interests of the poor, to take the initiative in establishing a home for working girls in Boston. Some time ago a gentleman, who does not wish his name to be published, gave Archbishop Wil-liams $1,000 to aid in founding such a home. His Grace, after long search, succeeded in se-ouring dwellings, which are being fitted up and will be ready shortly to receive occupants. The institution has been put in charge of the and two assistants, have arrived from Montreal. The Archbishop has guaranteed the running expenses of the home, with such assistance as will be given by the Working Girla' Aid Society, an organization recently formed. One of the primary objects of the institution is to give poor and respectable working girls, non-Catholic as well as Catholic, a home where they can get board and lodgings at a price within their means, and where they can have a secure retreat from the temptations which ordinarily beset them Archbishop Williams and the sisters have hope that the institution will gradually be developed to embrace other important features, such as a training school for practical work in the various departments of female labor, an intelligence office, etc., etc., but no definite plans have been determined upon. At present there will be accommodation for about twenty-five girls. The home will be formally opened in about a month.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing aliments peculiar to females, at the Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffelo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Br. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffied their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Br. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription?" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlbood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription?" when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription?" she conly medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.
