

all war material prohibited by Article 13 of the present Treaty;
all specialised installations, including research and production equipment prohibited by Article 13 which are not convertible for authorised research, development or construction.

3. Within six months from the coming into force of the present Treaty Austria shall provide the Governments of the Soviet Union, of the United Kingdom, of the United States of America, and of France with a list of the war material and installations enumerated in paragraph 2.

4. Austria shall not manufacture any war material of German design.

Austria shall not acquire or possess, either publicly or privately, or by any other means, any war material of German manufacture, origin or design except that the Austrian Government may utilise, for the creation of the Austrian armed forces, restricted quantities of war material of German manufacture, origin or design remaining in Austria after the Second World War.

5. A definition and list of war material for the purposes of the present Treaty are contained in Annex I.

ARTICLE 15

Prevention of German Rearmament

1. Austria shall co-operate fully with the Allied and Associated Powers in order to ensure that Germany is unable to take steps outside German territory towards rearmament.

2. Austria shall not employ or train in military or civil aviation or in the experimentation, design, production or maintenance of war material:

persons who are, or were at any time previous to 13th March, 1938, nationals of Germany;

or Austrian nationals precluded from serving in the Armed Forces under Article 12;

or persons who are not Austrian nationals.

ARTICLE 16

Prohibition relating to Civil Aircraft of German and Japanese Design

Austria shall not acquire or manufacture civil aircraft which are of German or Japanese design or which embody major assemblies of German or Japanese manufacture or design.

ARTICLE 17

Duration of Limitations

Each of the military and air clauses of the present Treaty shall remain in force until modified in whole or in part by agreement between the Allied and Associated Powers and Austria or, after Austria becomes a member of the United Nations, by agreement between the Security Council and Austria.
