

Business Cooperation Branch

The Industrial Cooperation Division of the Business Cooperation Branch provides funding to the Canadian Exporters' Association to run a project entitled "Canadian Assistance to Black Business in South Africa" (CABBSA). Using a budget of $1.1 million, this project makes South African business consultants available to assist black entrepreneurs in improving various aspects of their business operations.