

1948

1. The first part of the report deals with the general situation in the country. It is noted that the economy is still in a state of depression and that the government is facing a serious financial crisis. The report also mentions that the population is suffering from widespread poverty and unemployment.

2. The second part of the report discusses the political situation. It is noted that the government is weak and that there is a lack of unity among the political parties. The report also mentions that the military is still a powerful force in the country and that it is a major obstacle to the development of a democratic system.

3. The third part of the report deals with the social situation. It is noted that the social structure is still based on feudalism and that there is a large gap between the rich and the poor. The report also mentions that the education system is in a state of collapse and that the majority of the population is illiterate.

4. The fourth part of the report discusses the foreign relations of the country. It is noted that the country is still dependent on foreign aid and that it is a member of the United Nations. The report also mentions that the country is facing a serious international crisis and that it is in need of international support.

5. The fifth part of the report deals with the recommendations of the commission. It is recommended that the government should take steps to improve the economy, to strengthen the political system, to reform the social structure, and to improve the foreign relations of the country. It is also recommended that the military should be reformed and that the education system should be reorganized.