

Mr. Clark stated that both Soviet civil and Canadian military aircraft will be flying from Canada in the coming days to transport emergency relief supplies. Canadian military flights are departing tomorrow and Wednesday while special Aeroflot flights are scheduled to leave tonight and Thursday in addition to the regularly scheduled flight on Friday. Extra Canadian military flights will be scheduled as necessary.

Mr. Clark said that Canadians wishing to contribute medical supplies and other materials for the relief effort should contact the Armenian Community Center in Toronto at 416-491-2900 and the Tekeyan Cultural Association in Montreal at 514-747-6680. To obtain further information about contributing to the relief effort, they can call the Department of External Affairs Emergency Task Force at 613-996-9134.

