

in the third and fourth years. To get this Dr. Leacock recommends that advanced mathematics and accountancy should not be compulsory.

Dr. Leacock wishes to be placed on record as considering the subjects of Business Organisation and Industrial Organisation as too inexact and unscientific to be of value. All that is good in them can be conveyed as descriptive material in more scientific courses.

March 3, 1921.