

loss of an esteemed and much valued friend. Several of our "old familiar faces" are, unhappily, leaving for other homes—but one dear old face has passed away to "another and a better world."

s Protec-
at eccen-
merica,"
intimate

left no
through
and Re-

derer—
While he
he same
us con-

osition,
gnified.
ith bit-
But no
y were wrongly
ed the
in this ligious
ighest

to bed
part of mental nation

to his attend
he was
officers

The
ad the
rn the