

- 480 DARIEN. A short Vindication of Phil. Scot's Defence of the Scots abdicating Darien; being in answer to the challenge of the author of the defence of that settlement, to prove the Spanish title to Darien, by inheritance, marriage, donation, purchase, reversion, surrender, or conquest. With a prefatory reply to the false and scurrilous aspersions of the new author of The just and modest Vindication, &c. And some animadversions on the material part of it, relating to the title of Darien London.

- 484* ——— A full and exact collection of all the considerable addresses, memorials, petitions, answers, proclamations, declarations, letters, and other public papers, relating to the company, trading to Africa, and the Indies, with a preface, including the Act of Parliament by which the said company was established in June, 1695. s. l.
Small 8vo.
- The attempt of the Company of Scotland trading to Africa and the Indies, to form an establishment on the isthmus of the Darien, which was opposed by the English Government, made a great noise at the time, and produced numerous tracts in favour and against it. A very fair account of the whole transaction is given in Burney's Voyages and Discoveries in the South Sea, &c. vol. iv. p. 359.
