

Brande's Encyclopedia of Science, Literature, and Art.

Comprising the History, Description, and Scientific Principles of every Branch of Human Knowledge, &c. Edited by W. T. BRANDE, F.R.S.L. and E., assisted by J. CAUVIN, Esq. The various Departments by eminent Literary and Scientific Gentlemen. Numerous Engravings. 8vo, Sheep extra, $4 00.

This valuable work, for accurate information upon a vast variety of subjects brought up to the present day and carefully digested, is unrivaled and unequalled.—Tait's Magazine.

Clear and authentic, copious without prolixity, it does not furnish a bald explanation of facts and terms, but a development of principles well illustrated and explained.—Times.

He who has no encyclopedia will find it an excellent substitute for one; and he who has, will find it a valuable supplement.—Eclectic Review.

Blair's Sermons.

To which is prefixed the Life and Character of the Author, by JAMES FINLAYSON, D.D. 8vo, Muslin, $1 50.

The writings of this eminent scholar and divine have long been regarded as among the purest models of English style; terse, polished, and peripatetic, they exhibit the true and perfect standard of pulpit eloquence. No person can peruse these masterly productions without having his understanding invigorated, and his love for the true and beautiful matured.—N. Y. Courier.

Stephens's Books of Travels.

TRAVELS IN CENTRAL AMERICA, CHIAPAS, AND YUCATAN. Map and 88 Engravings. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $5 00.

INCIDENTS OF TRAVEL IN YUCATAN. With 120 Engravings, from Drawings by F. CATHERWOOD, Esq. 2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $5 00.

TRAVELS IN GREECE, TURKEY, RUSSIA, AND POLAND. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

TRAVELS IN EGYPT, ARABIA PETRÆA, AND THE HOLY LAND. Engravings. 2 vols. 12mo, Muslin, $1 75.

Very pleasant volumes. Such is the spirit of the author's descriptions, and the vivid force and truth of his narrative, that reading his work is like accompanying him on his route.—Athenæum.

The pleasantest and best works that have lately appeared.—London Spectator.

Thirlwall's History of Greece.

2 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $3 50; Sheep extra, $4 00.

A History of Greece, written with profound and well-digested learning. No history now exists in German, or in any language, which can be compared with Thirlwall's.—Eclectic Review. His work is candid, learned, and honest.—Southern Quarterly Review.

Crabb's English Synonyms Explained.

With copious Illustrations and Explanations, drawn from the best Writers. 8vo, Sheep extra, $2 00.

Wherever the English language is spoken, this book will prove of utility, and, next to the Bible and Dictionary, should have a place in every household.—American Review.

Alison's History of Europe,

From the Commencement of the French Revolution in 1789 to the Restoration of the Bourbons in 1815. In addition to the Notes on Chapter LXXVI., which correct the errors of the original work concerning the United States, a copious Analytical Index has been appended to this American Edition. 4 vols. 8vo, Muslin, $4 75; Sheep extra, $5 00.

By far the most remarkable historical work of the century. It exhibits remarkable diligence, and does impartial justice on higher principles than have yet been announced in history.—Quart. Rev. Alison combines the minutest attention to detail, the utmost carefulness in authenticating facts with the greatest facility in deducing principles and laying them before the reader.—Times.

One of the noblest offerings which our age has laid upon the altar of historic literature.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Alison's Military Life of John, Duke of Marlborough.

With Maps. 12mo, Muslin, $1 00.

A volume of great value to the general reader.—Literary Gazette.

It presents a more favorable specimen of the author's style than his greater "History of Europe."—London Spectator.

Croly's Life of George IV.

With Anecdotes of distinguished Persons. 18mo, Muslin, 45 cents.
