

CONSTITUTION

OF THE

MONTREAL LITERARY CLUB.

ARTICLE I.—This Society bears the name of “THE MONTREAL LITERARY CLUB.”

ARTICLE II.—Its object is to aid in the culture and fostering of Letters among its own Members, and in the community at large.

ARTICLE III.—The Club consists of Ordinary, Ordinary Life, Corresponding, and Honorary Members.

ARTICLE IV.—Persons of Twenty-one years of Age are eligible as Members.

ARTICLE V.—Admission to Membership is vested in the Club. Saving the case of original Members, provided for in Transitory Article No. 1, Candidates for admission as Ordinary Members are nominated by two Members at a regular meeting of the Club, and the nomination is in writing, duly signed by the Members nominating. The notice of nomination is exhibited on the notice-board of the Club for the space of fourteen days before the election.

ARTICLE VI.—Such election is held at a regular meeting of the Club, and the voting is by ballot. Twenty votes are required to constitute a valid election; and one black-ball in five excludes.
