

reply to a letter in which the sub-committee notified them of their intention, in future, to interrupt the Company's traffic and undermine its tracks without compensation or restoration. The Directors do not claim that there is any tone of submission in their reply.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

JAMES D. FRASER,

Secretary,

O. C. Pass. Ry. Co.