The Protestant Episcopal Divinity School of Toronto is intended to provide for the training of theological students in accordance with the principles of the Reformation, as embodied in the Articles of the Church of England, and thus to send forth men called of the Holy Ghost to preach the Gospel; men of Evangelical Faith, of sound churchmanship, and of genuine Catholic spirit; men who know and love and will proclaim the simple truths of the Gospel, and are determined, with St. Paul, to know NOTHING BUT CHRIST AND HIM CRUCIFIED.

THE DISTINCTIVE PRINCIPLES of this School, which will be insisted upon in the instructions given, are:—

1. The Bible, the Sole Rule of Faith; in opposition to the error that would make the Bible and tradition the joint rule of faith.

“Holy Scripture containeth all things necessary to salvation, so that whatsoever is not read therein, nor may be proved thereby, is not to be required of any man, that it should be believed as an article of the faith or be thought requisite or necessary to salvation.”—Article VI.

2. Justification by Faith in Christ alone; in opposition to the sacramentarian system.

“We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by faith; and not for our own works or deservings. Wherefore, that we are justified by faith only, is a most wholesome doctrine, and very full of comfort, as more largely is expressed in the Homily of Justification.”—Article XI.
