PHILOSOPHY OF THE PLAN OF SALVATION.—

By REV. J. B. WALKER, D.D., with an Introductory Essay by CALVIN E. STOWE, D.D. A new edition, with supplementary chapter by the author. Sixty-seventh thousand. 1 vol. 12mo. Price, $1.50.

"Though written with great simplicity, it is evidently the production of a master mind. * * and few works are more adapted to bring skeptics of a certain class to a stand. * * It is the disclosure of the actual process of mind through which the author passes, from the dark regions of doubt and infidelity to the clear light and conviction of a sound and heartfelt belief of the truth as it is in Jesus.

"There is in many parts of this treatise, a force of argument and a power of conviction almost resistless.

"It is a work of extraordinary power. * * We think it is more likely to lodge an impression in the human conscience, in favor of the divine authority of Christianity, than any work of the modern press."—London Evangelical Magazine, England.

"No single volume we ever read has been so satisfactory a demonstration of the truth of religion, or has had so strong a controlling influence over our habits of thought. * * No better book can be put into the hands of the honest and intellectual skeptic. It is overwhelmingly convincing to reason, and leaves the doubter nothing but his passions and prejudices to bolster him up. * * Every minister's library should have a copy."—The Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

"It fills a place in theological literature which no other book does. It is the style of the argument which gives power, impressiveness, and perennial freshness to this production. * * We have found in pastoral experience that we could place no better uninspired book than this in the hands of intelligent doubters, or in the hands of new converts, for their aid and guidance. Those who are not familiar with it, will do well to procure a copy and study it carefully. It is worth more than some large libraries to those who read for their profiting."—The Christian at Work, New York.

THE DOCTRINE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT; Or Philosophy of the Divine Operation in the Redemption of Man.—Being volume second of "The Philosophy of the Plan of Salvation."

By REV. J. B. WALKER, D.D. Fourth edition, revised and enlarged. Price, $1.50.

"The author's former able works have prepared the public for the rich treasures of thought in this volume. It is a book of foundation principles, and deals in the verities of the gospel as with scientific facts. It is an unanswerable argument in behalf of Christ's life, mission, and doctrine, and especially rich in its teachings concerning the office and work of the Spirit. No volume has lately issued from the press which brings so many timely truths to the public attention. While it is metaphysical and thorough, it is also clever, forceful, winning for its grand truth's sake, and every way readable. The author has wrought a great work for the Christian Church, and every minister and teacher should arm himself with strong weapons by perusing the arguments of this book. It is printed and bound in the exquisite style of all publications which issue from Messrs. S. C. Griggs & Co.'s establishment."—Methodist Recorder, Pittsburgh.
