

THE BOOK

LESSONS

LT

260

C3F5

1864

This book is a collection of lessons
as a part of the course of study partially developed in the preceding books. The object is to carry forward the instruction of the more advanced pupils into subjects which had been but briefly noticed or suggested earlier in the former books of the course.
The book is divided into two parts.
(1) The first part contains lessons on the subject of the first part of the course.

THE
as a part obje
more
been
in th

THE BOOK AND THE LESSONS
BY HENRY M. HARRIS
AND
BY HENRY M. HARRIS