Banks Davis from Willard Davis, ber husband. Mrs. Davis is the singer formerly employed in Johnson's cafe, and is said to have shot him when she learned or his interest in Lucile Cameron. The Davises are muisttos.

Charles Johnson brother of Jack Johnson, was heard by the federal grand jury.

"It is the hand of God," he said, as he entered the jury room. "The Lord is taking this fellow in hand and is direct ing justive at him." The witness is said to have told the grand jurors much of imfortance in the federal investigation.
Johnson was followed by Joseph Levy,
secretary to the puglilst.

Lucille Cameron will be recalled later in the week to complete her testimony.
She spent the night with her mother;
rusmied by a deputy marsinal. The grit was reported to be willing to do whatever her mother suggested, and to ald the government in the contemplated prosecution of Johnson.

Jack Johnson's saloon license expires on Nov. I and will not be renewed.

Pres. Bob Thompson Varsity Rugby Club Official Statement

in the local papers make it apparent that certain misconceptions prevail regarding the Varsity season thekets and the game against the Carlisle Indians. If the authors of these epistles would take the trouble to ascertain the facts before airing their grievances they would save themselves much indignation.

First of all, with regard to the game on Thanksgiving Day, I wish to make it clear that the Varsity Rugby Club has mulhing whatever to do with this same or its management, and is, therefore, in no way responsible for the price of tickets. This game was organized and arranged by certain private individuals with whom the Varsity Rugby Club has no connection. Furthermore the Varsity Rugby Club will derive no financial benefit whatever from this game. I hope this will make it clear that we as a club are not trying to hold up a long enduring public.

Then a few explanations are in order will make it clear that we as a club ate not trying to hold up a long enduring public.

Then a few explanations are in order with regard to our home game on Nov. 2. The withdrawal of Ottawa College from the Intercollegiate Union left us with an open date, which we bave filled as best we could. An exhibition game with Ottawa College was out of the question for obvious reasons, and the executive of our club arranged with the Royal Military College to play an exhibition game with us on that date. R.M.C. have an exceptionally strong feam and have won the intermediate championship for the last three years. This same will afford the public an opportunity of seeing what sort of showing they could make in senior company next year. R.M.C. will probably put up a better game than Ottawa College and will certainly put up a more sportsmanlike game and one worthier of the best traditions of intercollegiate sport. This game will be a financial loss to our club, as we had heavy expenses to Ottawa and no game in return and in addition we are paying R.M.C.'s expenses for this game.

The management regret that the supporters of Ottawa College in Toronto (if any) will be unable to see their favorites play here on Nov. 2, but we have provided the best substitute available. If, however, any of our season ticket-holders are dissatisfied with this arrangement we will refund them To cents on each ticket. Any who desire to have this done must bring their tickets to the south door of the University stadium on Thursday. Oct. 21 or Friday, Nov. 1, between 4 and 6 p.m. R. F. Thompson, president of the University of Toronto Rugby Club.

A Silent Revolution

"The fables and visions of one age, become the facts and practices of a succeeding age." -THACKERAY'S CRITICAL REVIEWS

This truth is amply illustrated by the

DAVIS'

"NOBLEMEN" CIGAR

A generation ago nobody would have admitted that a full weight Havana cigar could be sold at two for 25c, but the "NOBLEMEN" CIGAR has revolutionized all previous conceptions of cigar value.

The Davis' "NOBLEMEN" cigar is one of those discoveries which mark an epoch in the cigar world. It is Cuban made and Full of Quality, and the quality is of that description which leaves a lasting impression on the mind of the cigar connoisseur.

"NOBLEMEN" size, 2-for-a-quarter.
"PANETELAS" size, 10c straight.
"CONCHA FINA" size, 3 for 25c.
