JANUARY A MONTH OF SALES

HE month of January for many years past has been associated with sales, but never, perhaps, did sale specials mean so much as now. A general scarcity of many lines of merchandise and higher prices prevailing make the extra special offerings all the more remarkable. Great reserves of merchandise which stacked warehouses to the roofs, and which were purchased long ago to tide over the time of shortages, make possible these savings. As there is "something different every day," we advise quick daily selection, when the Sale specials are announced. These are for Today:
