awards offered by The World is growing very interesting as the end draws near. It is still anybody's game, with the active contenders running neck and neck and with those in the lead not a great distance ahead of those away down the list.

Mrs. Armstrong Leads.

Mrs. G. W. Armstrong of the seventh district, city of Toronto, is leading all members, according to the published list today. Mrs. Armstrong has been a hard worker, and her many friends who have been so loyally supporting her thus far will be glad to know of those "big smiles," and is not backward in going after her friends for subscriptions, and that is what it takes to succeed in a race of this kind. The second highest member today is Miss Blanche Cote of Haileybury, district eighteen. Miss Cote did not enter the campaisn until a short time ago, but made the start with remarkable

It is less than two weeks now until the end of the whole campaign, so many extra credits. Those who really mean business will make an effort to have their results on that day exceed anything that they have so far the campaisn until a short time ago, but made the start with remarkable speed and has made a fine showing thus far. She has a fine field to work in, and her wide acquaintance thru her being employed by a big lumber con-cern in Haileybury is helping her keep up with the pace.

Believes in The World. Alf Miller of the second district, city of Toronto, is third highest today. Mr. Miller did not enter the race until it was well started, but as he has been a reader of The World and a believer in time in convincing his friends that they should be World readers.

George Wray of Kitchener, district eleven, is running fourth. Mr. Wray is well acquainted in and around Kitchener and hearer and he chener and has many friends who are hoping to see him in one of the high sitions at the close of the campaign.

W. R. Nichols of the sixth district, city of Toronto, who is the fifth highest member, is a most consistent work-

PARADE OF LABOR WILL BEAT RECORD

Over 200,000 Organized Workers to March on Labor Day.

Organized workers for the first time since before the war will turn out en masse on Labor Day, Sept. 1, in what is expected will constitute a record Labor Day parade. The men will march to the Exhibition, where there will be a huge field day and open air

Last year on Labor Day 174,500 or-ganized workers attended the Exhibition, which was greater than the attendance any previous Year by some 20,000. The record of 153,000 had stood since 1913. This year an attendance of 200,000 is expected, the prediction being based on the tremendous strides organized labor has made in membership of late. A special committee of the District Trades and Labor Council met last night and formally approved the plans.
