Just for Fun-It is Running at the Toronto This Week.

Theatres Also Play to Crowded Houses — The Cummings Stock Company Put on a Clever Production of "Trilby" — At the Grand "The Girl From Paris" Returns and Repeats the Previous Sensation.

If you're looking for fun, try "Looking for Trouble." You will find both at the Toronto Opera House this week. Although it can scarcely be said to be of irresistible variety, yet there is a quiet humor about "Joe" Ott's grievances and contortions. He beams forth as a newly discovered star tolerably well. The "Trouble" in the show is not very serious, for it is personided in Abbott Davison, who as alias "Mr. Trouble" is not supposed to be serious. Joe Ott in his first stellar appearance here forms a sort of background in the thing for a lurid coloring of specialties. Among these are many songs, some clever, all passable. Of the former, Messra. Ott and Abbott have a corner. Nearly everybody takes a hand in the others. There is tumbling of an exceptionally rubbery brand, and the Fansom's, James and contentions in "Faust," a creation made of seasts commences this morning The Auditorium.

At the Auditorium.

Lovers of the variety show will patron. The Auditorium as burners and a bumper of the variety show will patron. The Parktown Swells" had a bumper senior year; School of Pharmacy, Mr. Yadelan, Mr. Wright; Veterinary College, Mr. Ditty, Veterinary College, Mr. D clever, all passable. Of the former, Messrs. It all the date of the most talented actors of this generation, announces this season his last in the season his last in the ardious character of Mephilsto There is tumbling of an exceptionally rubbery brand, and the Fansom's, James and May, with James, naturally and by all odds the favorite, form an exclusive syndicate. May is a pretty little dancer too. A sextet of other ladies kick well to gether too, but their chief duty is to austain the enthusiasm in the mortal Spanish war and the immortal Anglo-Saxon entente. They appear for this in suitable costume and with mingled ensigns, and old-enough-to-know-better husband and a "Dream." in the shape of a vaudeyille star. "Nuff said" as to that. The scenic appointments are exceptionally good, and the girls are petitic, shapely and conspicuous for a unanimity of Romanesque and Hebsic noses. Taking it all in all the frothy concection is well worth seeling. There will be matinees to-day, Thursday and Saturday. If yop want a good laugh go to the Toronto, sure.

Sunday Blaze at Kincardine.

Kincardine, Ont. Oct. 10.—On Sunday evening, shortly after church time, the chimney of Dr. Secord's fine res'dence was observed to be on fire and in a short time the roof burst into flame. The fire brigade was quickly on the seene and succeeded in putting out the blaze, but not until after the roof and attice had been badly burned and the lower storey and contents damaged considerably by water. The loss will be partly covered by insurance.

1. Bach-Tausies', Tocatio and falling believe to five the sa tempting it again, more especially in the case of Trilby, which invited such comparison, and got it as no other play before or son, and got it as no other play before or since has done. Trilby may have been generally supposed to be dead and burled, but the crowded house at the Princess last evening, emphatically witnessed to the contrary. The Cummings Company attempted a serious business when they put Trilby on the list of their engagements for this winter. Not only does it involve calls upon an actor's resources of the most serious description, but for that very reason it invites a form of criticism which is the most odious of all criticism—namely.

John Oxon, the courtly Duke of Osmonde, the trembling Parson, the whimpering Mistress Wimpole, the garrulous Lady Betty and the dashing, impetuous, fascinating Clorinda, who will first be seen as a boy, and next as a brilliant coquet. These

The Seidl Orchestra Concert. Next Tuesday night the Seidl Grand Or-chestra, under the baten of Mr. Henry Schmitt, will be heard by a large audlence in Massey Hall. The event will be the second concert in the course of four, and will be under the patronage of His Honor sections description, but for 'that very reason it invites a form of criticism which is the most odious of all criticism—namely, that of comparison. Toronto has seen Trilby played before, and by artists of no mean order of merit. And yet, judging of yesterday evening's performance as a whole, it was eminently satisfactory. It had its weak points, but it had its strong points also, and the strong, in the end predominated, and sent the audience away well pleased. Mr. Barry O'Neil looked the part of Little Billee to perfection, while Mr. Kingstone was every inch a brawny Scotchman. Trilby and Svengall were splendid of their kind. Mr. Ralph Stuart made no decided innovation in the presentation of the latter character, but it was something for which "strong" is altogether too weak an adjective. Miss Florence Stone made an admirable Trilby throughout, her acting being particularly impressive in the last act. Mr. Duane as Rev. Thomas Bagot, Miss Walters as Mrs. Bagot, Mr. Grady as "Zou Zou" and especially Miss Andrews as Mme. Vinard, were all extremely good. Trilby is not dead and buried by any means, when the Cummings Company can revive it so successfully as they did yesterday. That they will play to crowded houses so long as they choose that Trilby shall keep the board, may go without saying. There will be two performances daily. Mr. Robert Cummings did excellent work as Taffy, and showed that he was a capable actor, as well as a hustling manager. The stage-settings and costumes were things of beauty. the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mowat,
