Didn't Send Hers.

Dear Miss Grey.—In reading your Page I see where "Just One Girl" said you had her address. I wonder if you could forward it, if she consents. LUCKY.

Ans.—Certainly I could if I had your "lucky."

Her Papa Belongs.

Dear Miss Grey.—Can you tell me why nobody ever speaks of the 31st Battalion? I think it is the best that ever left London, because papa is in it. He is still in London, England, because of his deafness in one ear.

1. Miss Grey, I was 13 in January; I weigh 117 pounds, and am 5 feet 6 inches tall. Do you think I'm much too large for my age?

2. Can you give me the meaning of Freda, Emma and George?

Well, I must close my last question being: How is my writing? I hate to ask, as it is terrible, but would like to know.

Yours truly, Cynthia Grey.

Ans.—Your writing is very good, and you are doing well. I am sure you will be a great success in the future.

1. Freda is a name of a girl, Emma is a name of a girl, and George is a name of a boy.

2. You are not too large for your age, you are just right.

3. You are doing very well in your writing, and you are doing well in everything else.

4. You are a very good girl, and you are doing well in everything.

5. You are a very good girl, and you are doing well in everything.

we cannot pick up a paper without seeing glowing headlines telling of it. I think it is a "Middlesex Girl" who looks at herself and finds her own faults. She would be very glad to be a little more primitive. I am sure she would not need to amuse herself with her car's automobile. Knitting and sewing will not hurt her hands. If it does, she can take the price of the gasoline she uses for the car and buy "cold cream."

Well, dear Miss Grey, I am only trying to put country life in a different light, so your city readers will not think we are all so selfish we do not think of others. I will sign myself,

SOLDIER'S SISTER.

They Needn't Talk.

Dear Cynthia.—I am writing to give my opinion on these farmers and city people. The city folks don't need to talk about the farmers, and the farmers have more than a good many of the people that are talking about them.

1. Can you tell me what day the 21st of March fell on in the year 1897?

2. What will stop hair from falling out?

3. Would you please send this name to the ones that want lonely soldiers' names?

I shall sign as before,

Ans.—The date you ask about came on a Sunday.

2. Massage and brush hair and scalp nightly; apply a tonic or a little of this lotion: Six ounces bay rum, 1/2 drachms milk of sulphur; shake well before using. Wash head every two or three weeks.

3. You failed to give the man's regimental number, so the address is rather incomplete.
