What is thought to have been an attempt by burglars to break into St. Joseph's hospital about 2 o'clock this morning resulted in the police patrol and a squad of men being called.

When the patrol arrived on the scene no sign of the crooks was to be seen. It is thought they were hoping to obtain liquor.

MILE-A-MINUTE KENDALL IS A NOTABLE PHOTO-COMEDY.
Featuring Jack Pickford and Louisa Huff, the Paramount picture, "Mile-a-Minute Kendall," will be the leading attraction at the Patricia Theatre today. Based upon Owen Davis' celebrated stage success, this superb picture embraces throughout all the elements that go for artistic success. The story is a charming one, filled with thrills and delightful comedy, and the action is rapid and highly dramatic. All who have seen Jack Pickford in "Tom Sawyer" and "Huck and Tom" will find this newest vehicle to be one of unalloyed enjoyment. In the support is Lottie Pickford, who portrays the role of a woman with a past with highly artistic force. The cast generally is of the highest Paramount standard.

Vesuvius Quintet At the Patricia Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.
The Vesuvius Quintet, consisting of three males and two females, constitute what is probably the best mixed quintet of singers today in vaudeville. They offer a number, which they bill as "A Neapolitan Fantasy," consisting of exclusively ensemble singing in Italian, French and English, and instrumental music on guitars and mandolins.

Patrons of vaudeville, therefore, we can bespeak for the Vesuvius Quintet a most enthusiastic welcome. Aside from their wonderful singing, they introduce quite some few instrumental numbers on the guitar and mandolin, which serve to enhance the brilliancy of their act, as also does the scenic environment, which represents a Neapolitan scene. The act as a whole is class throughout, the whole effect of which is distinctly vaudeville of the highest order.
