The sugar situation in London is next of kin to the coal situation. In fact, they are like as two peas, or the twins whom nobody can tell apart. In other words, the sugar situation is decidedly acute, and people are extremely lucky who are even living from "hand to

Grocers, numbers of them, according to their own statement, are "taking care of their own customers," just like the coal dealers. Moreover, the grocers Pte. P. E. Lobsinger who are doing this, are refusing to serve other poor mortals, who are not happy enough to be customers, the people who like the little busy bees in the past have sipped honey from flower to flower, otherwise ordered sugar and other supplies wherever fancy dictated.

Notwithstanding the fact that a dispatch from Toronto announces today that Dr. Hastings, M. O. H., has received word from the Canada food board that sufficient sugar is expected within the next week to enable housewives of the Queen City to do their preserving, no such message of hope has reached London, so far as can be discovered. Whether the vendor can make out a good title by possession was referred to H. S. Blackburn, local master, who will report on the question, in the case of the Canada Trust Company and Topping. The property is situated in the township of Westminster.

Judgment was ordered to be entered in accordance with the report of the local master in the case of Markle vs. Hutchinson. The collection of certain accounts was the question that had been referred to the local master.

The question as to whether the vendor had by reason of possession a good title to certain property in Bosanquet dor had by reason of possession a good title to certain property in Bosanquet Township, in the case of Weller vs. Topham, was referred to the local master for an inquiry and report.

The high cost of living apparently was the cause of a motion made on behalf of the inspector of asylums to increase the payments to the local institution for the keep of a patient. After the evidence was heard her estate was ordered to increase the weekly payments to $5 instead of $2.75, which was formerly paid.

Real Wonder-Worker For Wrinkled Faces

called "wrinkle-removers" in a vain effort to lose those unwelcome traces of age, illness or worry, can scarcely find words to express their delight with the wonderful saxolite formula, once they have given it a trial. The success of this method is due not alone to its mar-velous effectiveness—upon the deepest lines and crowsfeet, as well as upon the Shorncliffe area.

Mr. Farquhar was formerly assistant pastor to Rev. Dr. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor) at St. Stephen's Presbyterian church here.

And creases that is so noticeable, but facial contour is remarkably improved and the face looks much younger. One should be sure to ask the druggist for the prowdered sacility. The lotion, being so refreshing, is partializing grateful to tired faces.—Advi.
