WEST TORONTO, Oct. 28.-The latthis vicinity is for a Sunday car serrice on the Suburban Railway Company. Manager George Royce states that he has been receiving many letters recently, asking why a Sunday service should not be put in operation. The Railway Act of 1906, according to Mr. Royce, is the great preventive, altho he is confident that special legis-lation will soon be invoked to have the act repealed in this case.

"It is quite inconvenient for people in Weston or Lambton who wish to go away from home on Sunday," said the manager. The railway company would be quite willing to have a Sunday service, provided the municipalities to be benefited would take the proper steps to get permission from the
