LOOKS FOR MISSING WIFE AND CHILDREN

Went Out Rowing and Returned the Beat, But Have Not Turned Up Themseives.

HAMILTON, July 24 .- (Special.)-Thomas J. Millward, a painter, living at 79 North John-street, is looking for his wife and two children, who have been missing since last night. They went out in a boat at the beach and have not been seen since, altho the boat has been returned. Millward went to the beach yesterday with his family, and last evening Mrs. Millward expressed a desire to go for a row. The husband did not want to go rowing, so Mrs. Millward took the children out herself. At 10 o'clock the was not back, and Mr. Millward came to the city to see if she was home. She was not, and did not get there all night. To-day Acting Detective Barrett and he went to the beach and learned that the boat had been returned to the beach and learned to the b been returned to the boathouse, so it is evident they were not drowned. No trace of them had been obtained

Altho the G.T.R. officials here do not say so, it is reported that the company moved the first freight train out of here this morning. The train went to either London or Toronto, and was manned by strikebreakers.
To-day the company took on some more special constables, and, as there are no indications of trouble here, it is said they were sent to other places. The heavy electric storm to-day did a lot of damage to the telephone and electric light systems. The lightning entered the residence of Newton D. Galbreith, Main and Tisdale-streets, about 6 o'clock to-night, and started a fire, which required the services of the fire department.

George Church, North James-street, and another man by the name of Taylor, were landed in the cells about 6 o'clock this morning by Constable Ince after a strenuous scrap. They, with a third man, were usleep on the grass at the T., H. and B. station, and when Ince woke them up Church, it is alleged, put up a fight. Ince's clothing was somewhat torn, but he got two of the three men. Church is charged with being drunk and resist-ing the police, and Taylor with being drunk.

Three boys, all about 14 years of age, broke into Begg & Shannon's store on North James-street about 4.30 this morning and stole a quantity May located one of the boys and re-covered the stuff. They will all be summoned in the juvenile court.

Horace T. Elmer, chief train despatcher of the T., H. and B., and ohief ranger of Court Oronhyatekha, onier ranger of Court Oronnyatekna,
