CHAS. JOHNSTON DEAD

Former Backer of John L. Sullivan Stricken in Brooklyn Home.

Backer of John L. Sullivan in his fight with Kilrain and Corbett and known to the world over as a sporting man, Charles Johnston died yesterday from Bright's disease, at his home, No. 64 South Elliott street, Brooklyn, in his fifty-ninth year.

For many years Johnston conducted the Plaza Hotel, at Fulton and Middle streets, near the Sands street terminal of the Brooklyn Bridge, but he retired from business ten years ago.

He had been for some time interested in the prize ring Johnston was one of the backers of the famous Atlantic Baseball Club, which in the cities achieved a national reputation...

A Serious Strike

There's "a strike on" from head to foot when the Kidneys stop working properly.

Dull headaches, tiredness, dizziness, puffiness under the eyes, bad skin, foul stomach, no appetite, sharp pains in the back, swollen feet—all due to Kidney Trouble.

It may be weakness, or the beginning of a serious disease.
