

QUADRUPLTS ARE EIGHT MONTHS OLD

Boy, First With Tooth and
First to Creep, Beats
Sisters

The Mahoney quadruplet babies will celebrate today as the day on which they complete eight months of existence. They have as a guest at their home 170 Queen street, their mother's mother, Mrs. Edith, of Bridgewater, N. S., who has the rare distinction of being the grandmother of quadruplet babies. The babies are thriving splendidly and can now be seen by visitors.

John, the only boy, has asserted his superiority by being the first to grow teeth, and he has already two fine dental specimens. Christine has him beaten in the matter of avoidpops, however, as she weighs 16 pounds 5/8 ounces, while John tips the scales at 15 pounds 8/8 ounces. There is nothing of a light weight about either of these two babies.

Edna, the next in size, has now come to weigh 11 pounds, one ounce, and Edith, the smallest of the four, is quite a husky youngster, weighing nine pounds, five ounces.

John is the only one that has made much progress at creeping, but he is developing quite a turn of speed and will be entered in a race before so very long if he keeps up at his present pace.

PROTEST MADE BY NEGROES.

Woman's Party Accused of Capitulating to Race Prejudice.

New York, Aug. 25.—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, announced it had sent this telegram to Alice Paul, leader of the National Woman's Party in Washington, protesting against the attempt to exclude negro speakers from the memorial services to Inez Milholland: "The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in the name of 100,000 Americans, white and colored, protests against the cowardly capitulation to race prejudice by the National Woman's Party at the grave of Inez Milholland, an active member of our association in her lifetime, who would have regarded such a position as you have taken. If capitulation to race prejudice is to be the price of election of women to office we sincerely hope that every one of your candidates will be defeated in the coming election."

Sure Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe, and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads, that is to use a little of the new, wet, cloth—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear. Blackheads are a mixture of dirt and secretions that form in the pores of the skin. The new, wet, cloth—rub over the water dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

MAXIMILIAN SURVIVOR

Mrs. Katie Kentling, 88, of Highlandville, Mo., is one of the two remaining survivors of the Maximilian empire of Mexico. The other survivor is Empress Carlotta, who is now held prisoner in a castle near Brussels. Mrs. Kentling's first husband was Maximilian, chief band master. For three years the couple lived in a royal way and then Maximilian was driven out of Mexico. The band master and his wife escaped to New Orleans and thence to St. Louis. Mrs. Kentling's husband died. She later married Frank Kentling. They moved to Highlandville, where he died, and where Mrs. Kentling is spending the twilight years of her life.

DEATHS

Mrs. James R. Davies.

The death of Mrs. James R. Davies occurred yesterday at her residence, Champlain street, West St. John, and came as a great shock to her many friends. Although she had been in failing health, her death came suddenly. Mrs. Davies is survived by her husband and one son, Thomas, of Montreal, who is expected to arrive in the city today.

Child of Mr. and Mrs. William J. O'Leary.

Much sympathy will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. William J. O'Leary in the death of their only child, James J., which occurred yesterday at the age of 18 months. The burial took place today.

Mrs. James Shevlin.

The death of Mrs. Margaret Shevlin, widow of James Shevlin, occurred on Saturday at the Mater Misericordiae Home. Mrs. Shevlin was a daughter of the late Jeremiah and Anne Lyons. She was born in St. John but had resided for years in New York. The funeral was from the home today at 8:30 to the Cathedral. The body will be taken to New York for interment. One sister, Mrs. George Freeze, of Vancouver, survives.

Frank H. Flewelling.

The death of Frank H. Flewelling occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. James Gault, 149 Douglas avenue, on Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock. The news was learned with deep regret by a wide circle of friends. Mr. Flewelling's death removes one who had long been a prominent and popular business man in the city of St. John. He leaves to mourn three brothers, Albert G., of Oak Point, Fred L., of Fairville, and Walker B., of Boston, also one sister, Mrs. James Gault, with whom he resided.

Frank H. Flewelling was a founder of the firm of Slipp and Flewelling, which was organized in 1886 and which is now the name of Slipp and Flewelling, Ltd. He was a popular citizen and a successful business man. He was a native of Oak Point, Kings county, having been born at that place on April 18, 1862. Later on he came to St. John to reside and spent the greater part of his life in this city. He first went into the grocery business and then entered the pork packing business with Edward W. Slipp.

Mr. Flewelling has for many months been in ill health. He was for a great many years a member of the Masonic Order, for several years one of the General Public Hospital commissioners and a member of the Anglican Church. He belonged to the Union of Fishermen and several fishing clubs, as his chief enjoyment was fishing.

ly lighted airplanes, and is sending a plane every night to circle over Times Square at 11 o'clock, when the crowds are pouring out of the theatres, announcing a new motion picture. The plane is being piloted by a man, but as soon as the girl recruits are selected and trained, the corporation hopes to have girls flying over New York at night.

Surprise was expressed at the office of the corporation at the advertisement which they received from the advertisement for such a hazardous occupation as night flying. The girls answered the requirements of possessing athletic ability and weighing not over 125 pounds. Those selected will be trained at Murolo Field near Fatsboro, N. J.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the store and asked his druggist for the best medicine he had in his store for women's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, helped me in a short time so I was able to do all of my housework including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it.

Moncton. Councillor William Golding, who also attended, remained over for a few days.

Mrs. Robert Munro Murray and children, Ruth and Thelma, are visiting Mrs. Murray's mother, Mrs. John Thomas, of Mill street Fairville. They will leave on Wednesday for Truro, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas and will visit at the home of Mrs. Thomas daughter, Mrs. George Hunter.

Mrs. Harry Gordon, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. John McLeod, of West End, left on Saturday evening for her home in Somerville, Mass. She was accompanied by her daughters, Misses Ethel and Margaret Catherwood.

MAY RAISE MOVIE PRICES.

Theatre Owners Say Increased Overhead May Necessitate Action.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 25.—That admission prices to motion pictures may have to be increased because of rising overhead and film prices was the opinion expressed at the Convention of Motion Picture Theatre Owners of Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware. A strong protest against film censorship was made on the ground that censorship, no matter how intelligent or capable, cannot revise pictures without injuring them from an artistic point of view. Pennsylvania has the strictest censorship in the country, it was asserted. M. J. O'Toole of Scranton, Pa., president of the association, attacked the court decision giving the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers the right to charge a 10-cent license fee for the use of compositions of their members. He said that bills were now being prepared for Congress to relieve the theatres from this.

UNVEIL TABLET TO LATE CLERGYMAN

St. Mary's Church Honors
the Memory of Archdeacon Raymond.

A brass memorial tablet, strikingly handsome in design and lettering was unveiled and dedicated to the memory of Venerable Archdeacon O. Raymond at last night's service in St. Mary's church, the unveiling being performed by William O. Raymond, of Michigan, the Archdeacon's son. Rev. R. Taylor McKim, rector of the church, officiated at the dedication and the sermon was preached by Venerable Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, who paid an eloquent tribute to his predecessor as Archdeacon of St. John. The church was filled to capacity and the service throughout was very impressive.

The tablet has been placed on the north wall of the church next to the pulpit. It is surrounded by cross and circle of ecclesiastical design. On the two steps which form the base of the cross are the words "To the Glory of God" and on the lower part of the tablet the inscription is continued as follows: "And in loving memory of William Oduhr Raymond, B.A., M.A., L.L.D., a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord." Archdeacon of St. John and Rector of this Parish, 1884-1916. Born in Woodstock, N.B., 1854, descendant of the United Empire Loyalists, died in Toronto, Ont., 1923. "I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."—II Timothy, 1:12. Erected by his friends and parishioners.

St. Mary's Band, which was founded by Ven. Archdeacon Raymond, gave an opening musical number appropriate to the service and the presentation and dedication took place after the reading of the Scripture lessons. The two churchwardens, G. Redmore and H. J. Barton, made the presentation of the tablet asking the rector's acceptance and Mr. McKim replied: "I accept this trust at your hands and will cause it to be unveiled and dedicated forthwith."

When he had unveiled the tablet Mr. Raymond read the inscription and the congregation then sang the dedicatory hymn, "Great God to Thee Our Hearts in Adoration," and prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. McKim.

Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot took for the text of his sermon, Hebrews 13:17: "Remember them which have the rule over you, which speak unto you the Word of God and consider the issue of their life, imitate them." After the sermon the band played a funeral march while the congregation stood and during the taking of the offertory Mrs. Howell sang "Crossing the Bar." The recessional hymn was "For All Thy Saints."

Radio experts and those interested in the study of the terrestrial planets had planned for an attempt to establish communication with Mars on Saturday. Elaborate preparations were made in different parts of the world. During last week there had been reports of mysterious messages received on several radio sets. On Saturday several stations were said to have picked up signals which had evidently come from Mars. The two churchwardens, G. Redmore and H. J. CANON ARMSTRONG SAYS FAREWELL

Trinity Rector, After 17 Years, Takes Leave of Congregation.

The summer season notwithstanding, Trinity church was filled at both services yesterday when Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong preached his last sermons as rector of the church. Both addresses were full of eloquence and feeling and struck a deep note of earnestness and exhortation. The preacher was greatly moved in delivering his addresses and there were very many in the congregations that were not ashamed of the emotion which his words called forth.

Today Canon and Mrs. Armstrong and their children will leave for their new home in Toronto and Canon Armstrong will take up his duties as associate rector at the Church of the Redeemer. He has been rector of Trinity church for the last 17 years and the departure of the family from St. John leaves a gap that will be hard indeed to fill.

The last sentences of his morning sermon were that he would never forget the worship in Trinity church, the loyalty of the people or the kindness shown to him. He asked God's blessing for them.

In the evening Canon Armstrong's text was "And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patient waiting for Christ."
