FINANCIAL HANDICAP

Managing Committee of Horticultural Association, at Annual Meeting, Refers to Outstanding Matters of the Year

The annual meeting of the St. John Horticultural Association was opened this afternoon.

The managing committee reported as follows:—

In consequence of the great increase in wages the funds available for the use of the association were found during the past year to be entirely inadequate for the efficient upkeep of the park and gardens. The roads in the park were consequently not maintained to the same extent as formerly and it was found impossible to keep the gardens up to the usual standard. This having been recently duly represented to the mayor and commissioners they readily acquiesced in the association's request and have prom-
