Down on Snodgrass

A Philadelphia despatch says: "Some otherwise sane citizens appear to have lost all mental balance, and 'Fred' Snodgrass, the Giants' outfielder, was threatened in the streets Wednesday night when the New York club arrived, by persons who appeared to be of eminent respectability. When the club reached the Reading terminal there was a large crowd to meet the Giants, and Snodgrass was hooted and hissed. Several persons attempted to get through the lines to do him violence. He was quickly hustled into a taxi by the other players and taken to his hotel.

Whenever he ventured out, he was threatened and hooted. While he was walking down Broad street with Geo. Wilkes a youth stepped up and hit him on his bare head. These demonstrations against Snodgrass are believed to be probably due to the highly colored reports of the spiking of Baker printed in the Philadelphia newspapers, and many of the fans 'saw red' at the thought of what was said to be 'a deliberate attempt to put the hero of the series out of the game.'

See Hope in Ames

New York, Oct. 20.—Charlie Dooin, the clever little manager of the Phillies, whose team at one time looked promising for the National League championship, believes that the Giants have a better chance of defeating the Athletics with 'Red' Ames in the box than with any other member of their staff.

"I think the Athletics are the biggest suckers in the world for curve pitching," declares Dooin, "and you know in that line there is nobody in the business that can come up to Ames. If he only gets a chance to work he'll have those fellows breaking their backs trying to hit him."

Many other experts are inclined to agree with Dooin when it comes to his opinion of Ames. He has pitched a few bad games this season. In the main his work has been sensational, and he may prove just the 'dark horse' that this series—as other series have done—will bring into the limelight.

Ames was a member of the Giants when they met the Athletics in 1906, and only got a chance to work an inning in the second game. He finished the battle after somebody went into bat for McGinnity in the eighth inning when the game was lost. Although he worked only one short inning he did not allow the White Elephants to score on him.

Dooin, who is breaking into the newspaper writing business this fall, remarked during the game at the Polo grounds that he thought Christy Mathewson is the greatest pitcher in the history of the game.

The Turf
Moncton, N. B., Oct. 23.—Frightened by an auto, a valuable mare owned and driven by Provincial Constable McArthur, of Shediac, dropped dead on Main street, Moncton, this evening. Constable McArthur was jogging his mare alongside the auto to get her accustomed to it. She appeared nervous and suddenly collapsed on the street, being dead when the owner reached its head. The animal was valued at $200 and will be a severe loss to the owner.

The management of the local senior football team here received a communication from the manager of the Moncton team asking for a game here Saturday. When Police Came Durham, N. C., Oct. 24.—A riot was narrowly averted last night, when the police put a stop to the display of moving pictures of Beulah Binford, the 17-year-old 'girl in the case' in the recent Beattie murder trial at Chesterfield, Pa.

The proprietor of the picture theatre threatened Sgt. Pondergast when he attempted to stop the machine, and an angry crowd hooted the police, who quietly swore out warrants and stopped the show.

MURPHY OUT AT HOME PLATE

This shows an incident of the third game of the championship series. A remarkable photograph showing Murphy out at home plate. The man who is tagging him is Herzog, the third baseman of the Giants, who ran him down and got him by what looks suspiciously like a football tackle. Meyers, the Indian catcher, is standing between the base runner and the plate. (Copyright by Underwood.)

WORLD'S SERIES RESUMED IN NEW YORK THIS AFTERNOON

Likely Mathewson Against Bender or Possibly Coombs—Grounds Promise to be in Fairly Good Condition

Philadelphia, Oct. 24.—The weather for the fourth game between the Philadelphia Athletics and the New York Giants in the series for the world's championship, is clear and cold. The thermometer stood at 50 degrees. A stiff wind is blowing from the northwest. The game today will start at 2 p.m., on a field that is still heavy from the recent rains.

At 11:20 o'clock the playing field was still somewhat heavy, but is condition was as good as a big squad of men could make it. Ground keeper Schroeder had a force at work most of the night filling up the holes and hardening the surface. He announced this morning after he saw the sun come up that the field would be in good shape by the time the game is to start.

While the day is fine, it is more fit for football than for baseball. There was a brisk wind blowing from the northwest with a slight nip in it, and it made heavy coats very comfortable. At 8 a.m. the government weather bureau thermometer registered fifty degrees with the prospects that it would grow very little warmer.

Fans in Line
The bright weather brought out the fans early. Before 8 o'clock there were several hundred in line at Shibe Park, waiting for the bleacher gates to open. The line grew longer every minute, and by the time the gates were opened, soon after 9 o'clock, there were about 2,000 persons congregated about the entrance. All reserved seats were sold before the first game was played a week ago yesterday, and another crowd will tax the capacity of the big grounds will no doubt be on hand when play begins.

Both teams are in fine condition for the game. The week's rest has tuned up the men, who were on the verge of staleness, and has enabled the pitchers to get back their strength for the strenuous work in the box. The wounds inflicted upon Frank Baker, the sensational batsman of the Athletics, by Centrefielder Snodgrass of the Giants, are almost healed, and will give the third baseman no trouble today.

The batteries for today will probably be Mathewson and Meyers for New York, and Bender and Thomas for Philadelphia. There has been no intimation from Manager Mack or Manager McGraw as to whom they will use. It is said that if the weather remains cold this afternoon, Mack may switch from Bender to Coombs, who will give the third baseman no trouble today.

JOHNSON
SUED FOR FLAT RENT

London, Oct. 24.—John Arthur Johnson, the famous colored heavyweight fighter, was sued yesterday by a woman who rented him a flat in Paddington. She testified that the pugilist, because of his unusual strength, smashed a large quantity of dishes and furniture. It was added that he made the flat so filthy as to be untenable.

Johnson did not appear in court, and was ordered to pay $37 damages.

New York, Oct. 24.—Patsy Kline, the New Jersey featherweight, knocked out Joe Coster, of Brooklyn, with a right to the jaw in the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round bout at the Fordham athletic club tonight.

New York, Oct. 24.—A party of French boxers will seek international honors in the United States this winter. They will be brought here by Richard Bennett, an English promoter.

AMUSEMENTS IN ST. JOHN;
WHAT THE PLAYHOUSES OFFER

OPERA HOUSE.
The following message received last night by H. J. Anderson, manager of the Opera House, is quite self-explanatory:

"The following message: 'Countess Deswirsky's performance clean, beautiful and highly artistic. Fine orchestra; great treat.'"

McDonald, Yarmouth, says: "Deswirsky great; nothing like it in provinces before, best it."

L. F. O'CONNELL.
Countess Deswirsky appears at the Opera House in interpretative Russian dances Friday and Saturday, Oct. 27 and 28.

NICKEL.
Tremendous crowds at the Nickel yesterday afternoon and evening saw and heard what is claimed to be one of the best programmes this house has ever presented.

The appearance of Mr. Fred Driscoll as a "moon" song, the very pleasing high-class number of Miss Breck (Ardis's assistant) and the Vitaphone society drama, 'The Thumb Print' being the day of acquiescence of excellence, though many enjoyed the travel scenes most. These views of foreign lands included inside the Ride Through the Mountain Passes of New Zealand and a Hurry Trip in Eastern Europe.

The Kalem Company presented the latest state drama of the Spanish period in California entitled 'Don Ramon's Daughter,' and the comedy was a Patsy Kline. Of detective yarn, Nick Winter's Clue. Miss Breck's rendition of the intricate waltz-song, particularly her singing of the waltz, elicited rounds of applause and encore demands. Mr. Driscoll's number was also well received. This programme, except the singing, will be completed tonight.

THE STAR.
The Star Theatre tonight offers an unusual attraction—indeed a decided novelty—in Prof. Jeremiah Sargisfield's famous lecture of pictures taken inside of world's largest penitentiary, with accompanying remarks that are declared of absorbing interest and of a highly edifying tone. The lecture, which is fifteen minutes in duration, is not an idle one. It is full of strong arguments in helping to solve the problem of prison and other evils of the day.

Prof. Sargisfield is well known in the United States and has just completed a tour of the east. He was at one time chief of the Berillon identification department of the Ohio State Penitentiary, from which he takes most of his subject matter. The Star will have this noted lecturer for two nights only. The usual big programme of film-stories and songs as usual is promised.

WOMEN'S ART ASSOCIATION
REPORTS VERY GOOD YEAR

Toronto, Oct. 24.—(Special)—The annual meeting of the Women's Art Association was held in their galleries yesterday afternoon. They have had a better year than ever before. The reports from the branches in Ottawa, Hamilton, St. Thomas, Kingston, Peterborough, Owen Sound and New Brunswick, told of the great amount of interest that had been taken in the art of the past.

The lectures that had been given, and the musical evenings. The study clubs were of great benefit to the members. There is no art school or paid instructor in art.

It isn't safe to judge the world by your view of it.
