PETER NORDBECK.

Human Hair.

Cleanliness of the Head and Hair.

STRANGE it is that persons who attend strictly to personal cleanliness, baths, &c. should neglect the Head—the Hair—the most essential—the most exposed—and the most beautiful when properly cared for, of all the gifts of the Creator. Perfectly free may it be kept of dandriff or scurf with a certainty that the hair cannot fall out, by the use of the Balm of Columbia. Ladies, will you make your toilet without this article? I answer fearlessly, No, if you have once tried and experienced its purifying effects—its sweet perfume.

A hundred articles have been put forth on the credit of this—the only first—the only really valuable article. A mass of testimony from all classes to these facts.

LOOK OUT—Counterfeits are abroad; look always for the name of COMSTOCK & CO. on the splendid wrappers, and never buy it without that name.

For sale by nearly every shopkeeper in the province; in Halifax by HUMPHREY & Co., and the other Druggists.
