

Royal Household Flour

THERE are many kinds of flour sold. Some are made from spring wheat and some from winter wheat.

What you ought to know is which wheat makes the best flour, and why.

Winter wheat is put into the ground in the fall, grows a few inches, then gives up to the snow. When the snow melts it grows again, ripening in July. It matures slowly, is soft and very starchy.

Spring wheat is sown in late April or early May, and ripens in August. It matures rapidly and is therefore strong. It's a flinty, translucent wheat, rich in gluten and containing nearly twice as much real nutriment as the winter wheat.

is made entirely from the hard, nutritious spring wheat, carefully selected from all the wheat of this kind grown in Canada.

Royal Household is fine, light and pure—milled by the most improved methods—in a mill as cleanly as your own kitchen.

Ask your grocer for Ogilvie's Royal Household—just enough to try. He may charge you a few cents more than you are used to paying, but you will forget that when you see the results in your bread and pastry.

SPEARING FISH

ILLEGAL METHOD SAID TO BE CARRIED ON AT DORCHESTER.

London, Oct. 23.—The game wardens of the county have been troubled a good deal lately by a certain class of sportsmen who insist upon making infringements of the law regarding fishing on the River Thames. In the past there has been some trouble about the setting of nets, but now these fishers have started spearing the fish, which, of course, is contrary to the law.

This spearing is being carried on at night. The men place a torch in the front of their boat and spearing the fish as they rise to this light. It is said that this method of obtaining the fish has been carried on for some time, the men frequently staying at their work all night and making splendid hauls.

The wardens have not as yet made any arrests, but have made enquiries and have information which they believe will lead to the arrest of the men.

MINISTERS ON STAND.

Suffragettes Call Members of Cabinet as Witnesses in Defence.

London, Oct. 22.—The suffragettes succeeded in bringing two members of the British Cabinet, David Lloyd-George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Herbert John Gladstone, Secretary of State for Home Affairs, as witnesses to the Bow street Police Court yesterday.

The occasion was the hearing of the cases against Mrs. and Miss Pankhurst and Mrs. Drummond, who were tried for inciting to disorder, when they appeared early in the month to the public to help them "rush the House of Commons," and 17 other women who were arrested Oct. 13, charged with disorderly conduct.

A large crowd, including many suffragettes, had gathered. Miss Pankhurst examined the two Cabinet Ministers. The purpose of her questions, many of which were disallowed by the judge, was to show that if the Government gave women "their rights" the disorders would come to an end.

After an examination of the two Ministers that lasted all day long, Miss Pankhurst announced that she still had 50 other witnesses to call. Mrs. Drummond was remanded until Saturday and the other prisoners until today.

AID TO UNEMPLOYED

Asquith Announces Program For Industrial Crisis.

TO INCREASE RELIEF FUND

Sum of $1,500,000 Will Be Provided and Work Will Be Supplied by Rushing Additions to Navy—War Office Ready to Take 24,000 Men For Winter Training—Remedy inadequate, Says Laborites.

London, Oct. 22.—The very serious matter of the unemployed in England came up for discussion in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, but a larger dose of money than last year and the expediting of the naval ship-building program were the only expedients proposed by Premier Asquith in his unfolding of the Government's plan to meet the situation.

The gravity of the case arising from the fact that hundreds of thousands are on the verge of starvation through lack of work, was fully recognized by the Premier, but he said he could not undertake, in the legislative field, to grapple with the permanent causes thereof until the next session.

The Government, he said, was prepared to provide a fund of $1,500,000 to help the unemployed and the additional was giving out orders for the construction of nine torpedo boat destroyers and five unarmored cruisers, to cost a total of $12,500,000, two months earlier than originally had been intended.

The Premier made also a bid for recruits, saying that the War Office was ready to take on 24,000 men for winter training in the special reserves. These proposals quite fail to meet the demands of the Labor members of the House.

The Beauty Of Firm Flesh

Lies in The Power of Rich Blood To Keep It Ever Clear and Clean.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers Free.

The secret of firm, strong, supple flesh is—good, rich, constant flowing blood. When hollow cheeks appear and pigments make the eyes look like burnt holes in a blanket, the blood is sick and out of tune.

Impurities fill it with poisons, the flesh abhors, and the lungs cannot eliminate, as they should.

The effect of impure and pure blood is seen at once on the face.

It needs a purifier, Stuart's Calcium Wafers give to the blood through the same channels as food all the strength and stimulus necessary to remove the impurities and to make rich corpuscles which will feed the body or fight its enemies.

Time was when poor blood-purifiers had to be used, such as herbs and roots, powdered minerals, etc., but thanks to latter day achievement the Stuart process gives to the system the full rich strength of Calcium Sulphide, the greatest blood purifier known to science.

These little powerful wafers are prepared by one of the most noted expert pharmaceutical chemists in the world, and so far as science is concerned no expense has been spared to make them perfect.

They contain Quassia, Golden Seal and Eucalyptus, each a most powerful aid to the blood of man. Thousands of people use these wafers with religious zeal, and their testimonial evidence is an unflinching source of interest to one who reads it.

Melancholy marks every suffering woman, yet one should be armed with this knowledge and make up one's mind to try Stuart's Calcium Wafers at once. Every druggist carries them. Price 50c, or send us your name and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 175 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Terrible Devastation by Forest Fires Is Reported.

Detroit, Oct. 22.—A despatch from Sault Ste. Marie last night says that the forest fires after being dormant for two days have started up afresh under the influence of a 50-mile gale and with greater fury than ever. Homesteaders are abandoning their log cabins and are fleeing for their lives. The whole southeastern part of the country is ablaze, and the farmers coming to the Soo to-day say that bears and other animals are running before the flames searching for places of safety. The country is again enveloped in a pall of smoke and navigation is once more hindered.

ANOTHER PRAIRIE ROAD.

G.T.P. Said to Be Planning Second Trans-Pacific Line.

Ottawa, Oct. 21.—It is stated on excellent authority that the Grand Trunk Pacific proposes to construct what will be practically a second line of railway stretching right across the prairie provinces. It is the company's intention to place itself on an equal footing with the C. P. R. in the west, and to build lines tapping the great wheat country south of its main line from Winnipeg to Edmonton. The result will be to open up another large stretch of agricultural land and give a great stimulus to settlement in the west. The line will start at a point near Brandon and run into the Alberta coal fields.

CREIGHTON IS DEAD

Owen Sound Murderer Comes to Mysterious End.

TOOK POISON SAYS DOCTOR

Man Condemned to Hang For Killing Wife and Step-Daughters Dies After Violent Illness and Any of Several Poisons May Have Produced Result.—Inquest Is Adjourned Till Saturday Morning.

Owen Sound, Oct. 22.—A few minutes before 5 o'clock yesterday morning James Farish Creighton, who was condemned to death for the murder of his wife and two step-daughters in May last, died in his cell. The news created a sensation in the town. The inquest was opened yesterday afternoon, the first witness being Mr. J. Miller, the jailer. He stated that since his conviction Creighton had never been left alone for a single moment. His meals were prepared by himself or the turnkey and the cell searched in order to ascertain that it contained nothing with which he could injure himself. The only outsiders who had seen the prisoner were his spiritual and legal advisers.

Dr. Middlebro, the jail physician, declared that when he saw the prisoner last Saturday all that seemed to be the matter with him was a plain attack of indigestion. He had given him powders, but these had done no good and on Tuesday morning his condition was so serious that he thought it advisable to consult with Dr. Lang. That same night the prisoner was in a serious condition and in great agony. He complained of severe pains in his stomach and vomited a great deal of brownish matter. He could not tell what was the cause of death, but he had examined the body. It might be due to some inflammation of the stomach and the symptoms before his death were such as might have been produced by a number of different poisons.

Dr. Lang declared that he could not tell the cause of death, although it might be due to gastritis. It was then decided to hold a post-mortem examination and the inquest was adjourned till Friday afternoon. The jurymen crowded the body, which was laid out in the condemned man's cell. It was swollen and discolored. Creighton's unexpected death is the sole subject of conversation here.

Gales Worse; Fire Spread.

SNATCHED HANDBAG

LONDON WOMAN ROBBED IN DOWN-TOWN SECTION.

London, Oct. 26.—About half-past nine o'clock Saturday night near the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets a lad of about thirteen or fourteen years of age approached a well-known London lady (whose name the police refuse to divulge), and snatching her handbag, darted away and was lost among the numerous shops who frequent the downtown district at the week's end.

The woman in the case immediately reported the matter at police headquarters and gave a very fair description of the young culprit, whose arrest is expected within the next twenty-four hours.

"It certainly was a most nervy piece of purse-snatching," said a local detective last night, "for that lad took a sensational chance in making away with his ill-gotten gain in front of the large crowd of pedestrians on the thoroughfare at the time."

The handbag contained about $100 in money.

It should be in every house.
